In Newfoundland JUL 13 1944

Following two and one-half years of overseas service in Newfoundland, Cpl. Anthony Donchez has been granted a twenty-one day furlough, and is staying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Donchez, 118 Graham Court.

A member of the 267th Army Ground Forces Band, Cpl. Donchez has recently been transferred with his unit to Norfolk, Virginia. His unit was formerly the Third Infantry Regimental Band, the Third Infantry Regiment having been the first troops sent overseas in January, 1941.

Prior to being relieved of duty in Newfoundland, Cpl. Donchez had the pleasure and surprise of meeting a former Bethlehem High School classmate and fellow musician in the band's quarters. He was Sgt. Fred Kline, son of a former councilman of Bethlehem, Fritz Kline. Sgt. Kline is a member of the 243rd Army Ground Forces Band which replaced the 267th A. G. F. Band of which Cpl. Donchez is a member.

Cpl. Donchez entered the U. S. Army before the outbreak of war and on Oct. 17 will have served three years. Two other brothers serve in the U. S. Navy; Steve, a lieutenant in Hawaii, and Frank, a radio man, 2nd class, stationed in New York City.
