

Evans, Ormond V.

Northampton County
Naval Reservists

Conclude Service 12 1945

Lieut. Commander Ormond V. Evans, 46, USNR, whose wife lives at 2612 Liberty Street, Easton, and Lieut. James R. Charron, 30, USNR, whose wife lives in Pen Argyl, have been released to inactive duty by the Navy's Separation Center at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Commander Evans has served overseas in the European and Pacific areas for 18 months and was in the Normandy invasion. Prior to entering the Navy, he was employed by the W. F. Triple Company, Wilmington, Del.

Lieut. Charron has served overseas in the Pacific theater as commanding officer of the LCI 348. He has participated in the Marshall and Aleutian Islands invasions. He graduated from Lafayette College in 1940.

November 12, 1945