

Shellenberger, Donald

FIFTEEN LOCAL MEN
ENLIST IN U. S. ARMY

Fifteen of the 58 men who have volunteered for Army service at the

NOV 1 1942

Allentown recruiting station during the past week are from Bethlehem. According to Pvt. Harold Holmblad, who is in charge of the station, about 65 per cent of the enlistments last week were those of young men of the 18 and 19-year age bracket. Among those enrolled are the following:

Donald L. Shellenberger, Basil Pavlish, Albert F. Fox, Harold P. Hackman, Charles W. Hartzell, Jr., Robert T. Fillman, William Groza, Richard J. Golab, all of Bethlehem; Albert R. Stubblebine, Elmer W. Wildrich, Richard R. Young Easton; Francis J. Sheridan and Melvin F. Ehly, Phillipsburg.
William J. Gyorek, Peter V. Bel-grasch, Carlton W. Sink, Ralph O. Rohrbaugh, James R. Lindenmuth, Francis C. Talijan, Preston I. Fisher, all of Bethlehem; Maurice H. Levine, Easton; Paul M. Bachman, Northampton; Frank H. Ehly, Phillipsburg; Milton C. Oyer, Bangor; Frederick K. Horn, Sellersville.

Nov 4, 1942