

Jarvis, Richard T.

Pfc. Richard T. Jarvis Returns From Rest Camp

Pfc. Richard T. Jarvis, a radar operator of the 231st AAA Searchlight Battalion which is stationed at an airfield adjacent to Furth, Germany has recently returned there from a week at the IX Air Defense Command Rest Center and Chamonix, France. Chamonix is a well known playground for the rich and prominent of the world located in the Alps mountains where Pfc. Jarvis enjoyed the thrill of riding the suspension cable car (one of the highest lifts in Europe), to the top of Mt. Brevent. SEP 27 1945

Pfc. Jarvis's searchlight unit is currently assigned the defense of a Ninth Air Force fighter base near Furth. Before V-E Day his unit was charged the task of defending many vital Ninth Air Force bomber bases.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Jarvis, 1920 Freemansburg Avenue, Easton, he was an outstanding member of varsity baseball, basketball and football teams at Wilson High School in Easton. He graduated there in 1943 and before entering the service was employed by the Dixie Cup Company. He has served overseas for the past 14 months in Scotland, England, France, Belgium and Germany.

Sep 27, 1945