

Toole, Frederick W.

Lt. Frederick Toole
With Honored Unit

1st Lieut. Frederick W. Toole, son of Charles B. Toole, 402 New Street, is a member of the First Battalion of the Third Division's 15th Regiment which were awarded the Presidential Unit citation for its action south of Montelimar, during the Seventh Army's lightning drive up the Rhone valley from southern France.

The local soldier is entitled to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge, a blue ribbon with gold frame, over his right breast pocket. As a member of the Third Division, he is also entitled to wear the Croix de Guerre fourragere, awarded to the Third by General Charles De Gaulle, for the division's work in the Vosges Mountain and pocket campaigns. The Third is the only division awarded the coveted cord of honor in this war.
