

Masten, Edward C.

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED.

New Cumberland, Pa., Jan. 12. (Special to the Globe-Times)—Promotion of Pfc. Edward C. Masten, 614 First Avenue Bethlehem, to be Technician Fifth Grade in the supply section of the 1301st Service Unit, has been announced by Lieut. Col. William A. Fulmer, Commander of the New Cumberland Army Reception Center. This advancement entitles him to wear a corporal's stripes.

Corp. Masten, the son of Wesley R. Masten, is a graduate of Moravian Preparatory School, and of the Bethlehem Business College. Prior to his induction at Wilkes-Barre, May 8, 1942, Corp. Masten was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company, in the main office, as a tabulator.
