

Jones, Harold L.

Bath Man a Colonel at 34

BOLLING FIELD, D. C. (Special to the Globe-Times)—Harold L. Jones, of Bolling Field Army Air Base, receives his insignia for the rank of full Colonel from the hands of Colonel Thomas W. Hastey, Commanding Officer of the Air Base. At 34, Colonel Jones occupies a three-fold position—officer in charge of Base Operations, Bolling Field Sub-Depot and Plans and Training (S-2). He is also a veteran flier. Active duty began with the Air Corps in 1932; prior to his Bolling Field assignment, August, 1942, he was stationed at Mitchel Field, New York. Colonel Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, of Bath, Pennsylvania. He was graduated from the Nazareth High School at Nazareth, Penn., and Pennsylvania State College. Mrs. Jones is the former Cora J. Salyers and they are the parents of a daughter, Mary Margaret. (Army Air Forces Photo)

Feb 14, 1944