

Gallagher, Stanley S.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Seaman Stanley S. Gallagher, of 334 Water st., arrived home on Friday, March 19 for a seven day furlough. Before enlisting in the Navy he worked at the Bethlehem Steel Co. plant.

He has nine brothers and sisters and is the first of the family to leave to serve his country.

Seaman Gallagher has just finished his "boot" training and is now a 2-c seaman. MAR 24 1943

March 24, 1943