

Miller, Francis J.

Francis J. Miller,
Bangor Soldier,
Prisoner of Nazis

JAN 24 1945
Word was received last evening from the War Department by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Miller of 663 South Main Street, Bangor, that their son, S. Sgt. Francis J. Miller, who has been reported missing in action over Germany since Dec. 4, 1944, is now a prisoner of war of the German government.

He was inducted into service in September, 1942, and received basic training at Las Vegas, Nev. He went overseas in October, 1944, and was a member of the bomber command of the Air Forces.
