

D'Ambrosio, Eurhenio P.

Dons "Civvies" Again

Veteran of three years Naval service, Eurhenio Peter D'Ambrosio, MMM1/C, returned to his pre-war civilian status this week. He was honorably discharged at the Bainbridge, Md. separation center after which he rejoined his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter D'Ambrosio at their home, 638 Hayes St.

All of his 26 months sea duty was spent in the Pacific Theatre, during which time he served on the destroyer escort USS William C. Miller on operations in Tarawa, Eniwetok, and Majuro. He later transferred to the USS Patrol Craft, 800 for the Iwo Jima and Okinawa Campaigns. He holds the American, Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbons and Good Conduct Medal.
