

Ellison, Frank
Harold

SPENT LEAVE HERE

Frank Ellison, third class petty officer and gunner for a Navy torpedo bomber, left here Monday for his station at Hatboro after spending a short leave here with his mother, Mrs. William Ellison, and his fiancée, Miss Phyllis Best, both of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Ellison is one of twin sisters of Major Clark Little, Bethlehem Salvation Army official, and is spending a few days here with Major and Mrs. Little at the local Salvation Army citadel.

Third Class Petty Officer Ellison had been a Navy baker before his brother, Harold, was killed in the battle of Midway. In this action Harold was on the ill-fated aircraft carrier Wasp.

Frank decided to enter the Navy gunnery school with the Air Corps to avenge his brother's death.

May 19, 1943