

*Gangwere, James H.
Lee*

Marine On Police Duty in Australia

James Harvey Gangwere, 22, son of Mrs. Erma McLaughlin, 1241 Oakwood Avenue, Hillside, N. J., a former employe of the Bethlehem and Easton Food Fair Stores, is now a military policeman with the U. S. Marines in Australia.

JAMES H. GANGWERE

Private Gangwere was with the first Marine detachment that landed on Guadalcanal last August, later relieved by the U. S. Army. He enlisted on February 13, 1942. A brother, Lee Morton Gangwere, 19, has also enlisted in the Marines and is receiving his basic training at Parris Island, South Carolina.

April 26, 1943