

Strohmeier John

He's Ensign Now

John Strohmeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strohmeier, Route 2, Bethlehem, has been commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Navy.

Ensign Strohmeier, an employe in the editorial department of The Globe-Times, attended Moravian College and entered the V-12 program at Muhlenberg College July 1, 1943.

While at Muhlenberg he was managing editor of the Muhlenberg Weekly.

He entered the United States Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School at Columbia University with the 19th class and ranked scholastically with the upper fourth of the class. He served as associate editor of "Side Boy," a fourth anniversary publication by the 19th class.

Ensign Strohmeier was commissioned Aug. 10, and is spending a leave with his parents and friends. A sister is a member of the ...

August 14, 1944