Pfc. Samuel R. Smith
Wins Combat Badge

Pfc. Samuel R. Smith, 1407 Easton Avenue, recently was awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge for proving himself under fire in action against the enemy in Germany and Belgium. He is a member of an infantry division with the 106th (Lion Division) and was previously awarded the Bronze Service Star for the German campaign. His wife, Mrs. Rose Smith, resides at the Easton Avenue address, with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Smith.

*Pfc. Smith's outfit is the one which met the full force of the German armor-spearheaded breakthrough into Belgium in December, and held so tenaciously to important ground and key road centers, especially at St. Vith, that it threw Nazi plans and timetables completely out of kilter.
