

Lindner, Kenneth R.

Kenneth R. Lindner Becomes Lieut.-Colonel At Age of 25

SEP 26 1944

Kenneth R. Lindner, 25-year-old son of Mrs. George Lindner, of 432 Montclair Street, has been promoted from the rank of Major to that of Lieutenant Colonel. He is stationed somewhere overseas where he has been serving since January. Lieut.-Col. Lindner entered active service on June 11, 1941, after being in the Army Reserve for one year. He has been awarded a number of decorations since being in the service, including the pre-Pearl Harbor ribbon, European Theatre of War service ribbon, Silver Star and Oak Leaf cluster for gallantry in action, Bronze Star, Purple Heart and cluster and Infantry Combat Badge.

LT. COL. LINDNER

... Silver Oak Leaves at 25

A brother, S-Sgt. George K. Lindner, is also serving overseas. He crossed the ocean on the same convoy as his brother but was unable to see him.

September 26, 1944