

Rudolph, Joseph A.

Seaman Advances

DEC 13 1944

Joseph A. Rudolph, son of Mrs. Mary T. Rudolph, 1041 Mechanic Street, has been advanced to Seaman 1-C according to information received by his mother recently.

S 1-C Rudolph received his boot training at Sampson Naval Training Base, N. Y., and was later transferred to Norfolk, Va., where he was assigned to a Destroyer as a gunner. Before his induction into the U. S. Navy, May 29, 1943, he was employed by the Paragon Textile Company. The young bluejacket has participated in Naval battles throughout the Pacific and has served 17 months active duty overseas.
