

Lobb, Albert

Pfc. Albert Lobb
Latest Casualty FEB 28 1944
From Bangor Area

Word was received at Bangor late Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Sarah Lobb that her son, Pfc. Albert Lobb, of the United States Army, who had seen service on the Italian front, died on January 13, this year, as a result of wounds suffered in battle. This information was conveyed to the family by telegram from the United States War Department and it was indicated that a letter of explanation would follow.

February 28, 1944