

Haschak, John

Nine Ex-Vets Re-enlist For Army Duty

Announcement was made today at the office of the U. S. Army recruiting station, Post Office building, that nine residents of Bethlehem and vicinity have joined the various branches of service.

Among those who re-enlisted are Staff Sergeant John L. Pabst, Jr., 2123 Easton Avenue Bethlehem. He had previously served eight and one-half years in the Air Corps.

Staff Sergeant John Haschak, 10 Wood Street, Nazareth, also re-enlisted. He has 16 years of previous service part of which was with the Coast Artillery.

Sergeant Edward Uhl, Main Street, Coopersburg, re-enlisted. He served for six and one-half years, part of which was in the European theatre of operations, assigned to a Coast Artillery unit.

Technical Sergeant Vance McIlwance, 815 East Fourth Street, is another who re-enlisted. He has a previous service of three years in the ETO as a radio mechanic in the Air Corps.

Donald R. Shankweiler, 20, 1033 Essex Court, enlisted for 18 months in the regular army.

Barto Rollin Carl, 20, 508 Riegel Street, Bethlehem, enlisted in the Medical Corps. He will be assigned to the European theatre.

Forrest Race, 27, 1671 East 12th Street, a city fireman, enlisted in the Engineer Corps.

Anthony Nastasee, 18, 153 Main Street, Hellertown, who served for 14 months in the Merchant Marine service, enlisted for 18 months.

Edward Chromczak, 17, Bethlehem, enlisted for 18 months in the regular army.

Nov. 20, 1945