

Zeiner, James K.

Sgt. James Zeiner
With Air Marauders

WITH A FIRST TACTICAL AIR FORCE B-26 MARAUDER BOMBER GROUP, France — Sergeant James Kenneth Zeiner, 621 Alaska Street, Bethlehem, is on flying duty with B-26 Marauders of the First Tactical Air Force in France.

Overseas five months, Sergeant Zeiner recently reported for duty with a veteran Marauder group that has bombed enemy targets in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, France and Germany. He was previously stationed in England, whence he flew over Germany with an Eighth Air Force Liberator squadron and his latest missions have been on attacks against enemy positions in the Siegfried Line.

Before entering the Army in December, 1942, 20-year-old Sergeant Zeiner was an employe of Bethlehem Steel Company and a student at Lehigh University.
