

Serban, Raymond

15 Local Sailors Back In Civilian Life After Release

Fifteen Bethlehem sailors have discarded their Navy blues and returned to civilian clothes again, after their honorable discharge from the separation center at Bainbridge, Md.

They are: Raymond Serban, WT2c., 208 East Fourth Street; William J. Ripper, S1c., 743 Fiot Avenue; Albert M. Mlinko, Jr., MM2c., 1422 Cottage Avenue; Frank W. Deutsch, Jr., RM3c., 1085 Wyandotte Street; Joseph A. Royko, B3c., 714 Itaska Street; Richard W. Kresge, QM1c., 2547 Easton Avenue; Grover B. Rudolph, S1c., Donald Foltz, MM1c., 1411 High Street; Warren T. Kline, S2c., 918 Sassafras Street; Francis J. Mehof, AOM3c., 614 Pawnee Street; Elwood L. Moyer, SC3c., 236 Wall Street; Joseph Polak, RM2c., Charles W. Purcell, MM2c., 332 Second Avenue, and Charles F. Murphy, MMS2c., 1020 Jeter Avenue.

Nov. 14, 1945