

Malone, John W.
Thomas M.

Local Marine
In Iwo Invasion

MAR 14 1945

Thomas F. Malone, 434 Martel Street, has received word from his son, John W. Malone, serving with the 14th Marines, Fourth Division, that he participated in the invasion of Iwo Jima. He served in three previous major battles, in the Marshalls, Saipan and Tinian, and has never had a furlough since entering the service.

A brother, Cpl. Thomas M. Malone, now at MCS School at Quantico, Va., served on Guadalcanal and also participated in four battles.
