

Oswald, George S.

Sgt. George Oswald Receives Discharge

NOV 24 1945

Sgt. George S. Oswald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Oswald, 307 South Whitfield Street, Nazareth, was recently honorably discharged from the Army at Indiantown Gap. He entered the service on December 26, 1942, received most of his training at Fort Lewis, Washington, and was sent overseas with a tank destroyer unit. He served for two years in the ETO, as follows: Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes and Central Europe.

He wears the Good Conduct Medal, Bronze Star, European Theater Service Medal with five battle stars, Victory Medal and American Theatre Service Medal.

His duties consisted of supervising personnel in set-up firing and maintenance of three-inch anti-tank weapon; estimated ranges and elevations; supervised and directed location of weapon; computed deflections and quadrant; maintained radio and telephone communications; supervised maintenance of repairs on weapon.

He is a graduate of Nazareth High High School and prior to entering the service was employed by R. D. Lambert, jeweler, Nazareth, for nine years.

November 24, 1945