

Luther, Lewis

Local Navy Man On Ship's Newspaper

ABOARD A LIGHT AIRCRAFT CARRIER IN THE PACIFIC—Lewis Luther, 21, printer, second class, of Bethlehem, Pa., serves on this ship where he is on the staff of the ship's newspaper, "Flat-top Flashes."

Luther's ship has taken part in the Philippines action and later in strikes on Formosa, one of which took place on Christmas Day. Luther, whose battle duty is that of captain's talker, was summoned to his combat post seven different times on that day.

JUL 6 - 1945

During the strike on Formosa, the ship was damaged by a typhoon. In spite of the battle and heavy seas, Luther and his staff wrote and printed an anniversary edition of "Flat-top Flashes."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz Luther, 817 Laufer Avenue, Bethlehem. Before enlisting in February 1943, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

July 6, 1945