

Briner, Martin L.

Sgt. Briner on Way Home for Discharge

Oct 22, 1946

Sgt. Martin L. Briner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Briner, 526 Tenth Ave., recently informed his parents that he left Okinawa Oct. 3 and expects to be discharged from the Army "very soon."

Inducted at New Cumberland, April 16, 1945, he was sent to Camp Wheeler, Ga., where he completed his basic training as an infantryman. Sgt. Briner had been stationed on Okinawa for more than a year, serving with the Army Air Force Band following his transfer from the infantry.
