

Clarke, Richard S,
Herbert

Richard S. Clark
Back at Work 8 JAN 1946

Richard S. Clarke, first class torpedoman, who for the past three and one-half years has been in the Navy, was honorably discharged two weeks ago and is back at work in the payroll department of Bethlehem Steel Company. He is a the son of Mrs. Sallie H. Clarke, 1863 Richmond Ave.

Another son, Chief Boatswain's Mate Herbert E. Clarke Jr., arrived in the States last week, and is spending a ninety-day leave visiting his mother. Mr. Clark has been in the Navy the past seven and one-half years.

January 8, 1946