Pvt. Suzanne Laux
Completes "Boot"
At Camp LeJeune

Marine Private Suzanne Marie Laux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laux, 24 Wall Street, has completed six weeks "boot" training in the Recruit Depot of the Women's Reserve Schools at Camp LeJeune, N. C. MAY 23 1945

After completing her course including such subjects as military courtesy, Marine Corps history, close-order drill and Naval administration, she was assigned to duty as a clerk typist at the Marine Corps Base Depot, South Annex, Norfolk, Va.

The Marine Corps is again recruiting women for replacement of those girls gone overseas to serve in Pearl Harbor. Girls between the ages of 20 and 36, with at least two years of High School, and in good health, will be interviewed every Monday and Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the Allentown Post Office Building.
