Brothers Doing Bit In Nation's Service

Martin and Thomas Strelecki, sons of Michael and the late Alexandria Strelecki, 816 Evans Street, are doing their bit for Uncle Sam.

A graduate of Bethlehem High School, Martin recently completed his basic training at a naval school at Sampson, N. Y., with the rank of Seaman Second Class. He is scheduled for specialized training.

His brother, Thomas, now wears the chevrons of Corporal. He is serving his second year in the country's service. In conjunction with his military assignments he takes an active interest in camp sports.
