

Ocock, Rahyl

SAILOR ON LEAVE
TAKES BRIDE HERE

8-22-1942
Miss Geraldine Smith and Rahyl
Ocock United in Marriage.

Home on furlough from the Navy before being assigned to active duty Rahyl Ocock, 1350 Montrose Avenue, this morning took as his bride Miss Geraldine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pharus Smith, 433 East North Street. The ceremony was performed in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church by the pastor, Rev. Chester L. Brachman.

Attending the couple were Mrs. William Mantz, Jr., a sister of the bride as matron of honor, while Leland L. Watts, Jr., of Allentown, was best man.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Ocock is employed in a secretarial capacity at Lehigh University. She is a graduate of Bethlehem High. Mr. Ocock, a former Bethlehem Steel employe, has just completed his training at Newport News and after their honeymoon he returns to the naval service. During his tour of duty the bride will reside with her parents.
