

Kunsman, William

67 Northampton County Men Called to Arms

Sixty-seven men from the Northampton County Selective Service Board No. 3, with headquarters at Nazareth, were inducted into the armed forces yesterday in the newly-dedicated induction room at the Allentown Armed Forces Induction Station.

The Army accepted 45 men, the Navy 17, the Marines 4, and the Coast Guard 1.

The Army inductees, all of whom were granted the three-weeks' furlough, will report to the reception center at New Cumberland on Sept. 14. They are:

William H. Kunsman, Lester B. Knecht, William Yawney, Stephen M. Erdie, Anthony M. Metzger, Theodore F. Zimitz, Ralph P. Gerhab.

Sigmond M. Verdensky, John J. Price, Jr., Charles S. Mataitis, Wilson C. E. Rismiller, Theodore W. Gregory, Stanley F. Vetovitz, Andrew J. Gycsek, Charles W. Siegel, Grover O. Woodring, Ervan B. Kortright.

Walter S. Miller, Stanislav J. Jarema, Frederick Schuster, Louis Toth, Michael J. Franczak, Ernest E. Nemeth, Merle D. Bauer, Michael Prosak, Frederick B. Lynn, Jr., Earl W. Haldeman.

Walter W. Pum, Kenneth J. Drauch, Samuel E. Weiss, Carl J. Benvegno, Sigmond S. Czerwinski, Earl W. Judd, Francis J. Cannon, George Heitzman, Clayton H. Silfies, William A. Muth.

Edgar M. Meyers, William W. Lerch, Herbert O. Lily, George H. Rundle, Jr., Charles Vuksta, William Banko, Frank S. Schlofer, Paul J. Gregus.

The following were inducted in the Navy:

Marvin R. Nixon, Michael Yawney, Alex L. Horvath, Ernest L. Muschitz, Barry W. Barnett, Alexander Romanick, Arthur G. Strawu, Charles H. Herty, III.

Andrew J. Temmel, Ivan J. Bosar, Julius Nagy, Harvey T. Acker, Joseph Kish, Frank Fox, Orville L. Grube, Philip D. MacLeod, Rudolph F. Sauerzopf.

Marine inductees:

Maynard H. Underkoffler, Karl L. Laubach, Kenneth H. Fogel, Robert F. Moyer. The Coast Guard's lone inductee was Richard A. Smith.

SOLDIER CABLES GREET

Thomas Cottagé, this city, received unexpected birthday felicitations from a son, Thomas Jr., stationed with U. S. troops somewhere in North Africa. The soldier cabled greetings to his father, advising "All is well."

Aug. 25, 1943