

Bauman, Harrison Milton

HE'S A GLIDER PILOT

Harrison Milton Bauman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Bauman, who reside on a farm in the village of Stockertown, is listed as one of a group of thirteen Pennsylvania men who have been graduated as glider pilots with the rank of flight officer at Victorville Army Flying School, Victorville, Calif. He and his classmates have completed advanced training in cargo or "invasion" glider technique.

Bauman attended Nazareth High School, where he was active in athletics, and was an employe of the Hercules Cement Company. He has been in Uncle Sam's Army about two years. APR 15 1943

Apr 15, 1943