

Salvaggio, Frank

Old War I Vet,
Marine Enlistee,
Given Party

Frank Salvaggio, World War I veteran who recently enlisted in the Marine Corps, was given a farewell party by the Italian Political Club in St. Peter's Society, 817-819 East Fourth Street, on Wednesday evening.

Orlando Maura, president of the club, acted as toastmaster and introduced a list of speakers. The hall was decorated with red, white and blue streamers, and the tables were adorned with cut flowers. A luncheon was served with dancing following.

The guest of honor, an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company and residing at 602 Ontario Street, served two years in the last war, being promoted as a corporal in the heavy artillery. He left for active service today.

Those introduced by Mr. Maura were Anthony FaRannte, Michael Scanzello, Louis Chicchi, Albert DelGrosso, Michael Falco, Louis Braucci, Frank Braucci, Mrs. Leonard Staffieri, John Kroboth, Gus FaRannte, Rocco Salvaggio, James Salvaggio, Charles Sorrentino, Mrs. Joseph Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salvaggio, sons Ralph and Steve, Ralph Salvaggio, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Salvaggio, Mr. and Mrs. James Salvaggio, Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Salvaggio, Mr. and Mrs. Juan Salvaggio, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Mitman, Mr. and Mrs. John Vanic, Mr. and Mrs. Gus FaRannte, son Tony, Misses Loretta DeAngelis, Eva DeAngelis, Anna Braucci, Dorothy Schleppey and Lennie Frick, Rocco J. Salvaggio, Vincent Fresoli and John Buttillo.

April 30, 1943