

Golab, Richard J.

Made Corporal

AUG 30 1943

Corporal Richard J. Golab, son of Detective and Mrs. John S. Golab of 324 Washington Avenue, is spending a 15-day furlough with his parents. He recently received his chevrons and at the same time was named instructor in a tank destroyer unit, at a replacement center at Camp Hood, Texas. Following his enlistment on October 27, 1942, he was assigned to Camp Hood, and has been stationed at that point since then. He graduated from Liberty High School in 1941, and at the time of his enlistment was a student at the Bethlehem Business College. Since joining the armed forces he completed an instructor's course at Camp Hood. At Liberty High School he took an active interest in theatricals.
