MAR 17 1944

Staff Sergeant Technician Joseph J. Papovich of the Anti-Air Craft Battalion, stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, came home on a furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Papovich, 722 N. Bergen Street, and told them of his promotion received before leaving camp. Sgt. Papovich was graduated with honors from Technical High School being the salutarian of his class, and received a year's scholarship to Lehigh University. He attended Lehigh University for one year and the University of Alaska at Fairbanks, Alaska, for two years. Before entering the army in May, 1943, he was an instructor in the Signal Corps in Philadelphia.
