Twins Meet in England

MAR 12 1945

ALFRED BROWN

PAUL BROWN

Paul and Alfred Brown, twin sons of Mrs. Pearl E. Shaw, 502 East Fourth Street, have been reunited for the first time in over 3½ years, somewhere in England. Alfred, a crew-chief in the Air Corps and Paul, a member of the Air Transport Command, both completed basic training at Keesler Field, Miss. Alfred, who enlisted shortly after Pearl Harbor, was interned in a hospital for two months. Another brother, William Brown, is stationed in Germany.
