

Mair, Emmet J.

In Many Campaigns

Sgt. Emmet L. Mair, who served three years in the Hawaiian Islands after his enlistment in the U. S. Army March 27, 1939, has taken part in the African and Sicilian campaigns, the fighting at Salerno, the Anzio beachhead, and the invasion of southern France. His uncle, Willard T. Kistler, 36 West North Street, with whom he had resided, has received word that Sgt. Mair holds the Combat Infantryman's Badge, European Theatre, Before Pearl Harbor, Atlantic Theater ribbons and the Good Conduct Medal.
