

Hosler Jr., Myron C.

Sgt. Myron C. Hosler Jr.,
Gets Discharge 20 1946

LUKE FIELD, Ariz.—Sgt. Myron C. Hosler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hosler, 1623 Broadway, Bethlehem, Pa., has been honorably discharged from the AAF, after serving in the Army for more than two years.

Sgt. Hosler left Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz., an Advanced Flying Training School of the AAF Training Command and his last station of duty. He served at the Enlisted Men's Payroll Section as section head. He was a radio operator-gunner at Lincoln AAF, Neb., and a counsellor at Roswell AAF, N. M.

Before entering the Army, Sgt. Hosler Jr., was employed at Bethlehem Steel Company and is going back to work there.

Sgt. Hosler is married, and he and his wife, Dorothy Mae, and son Richard, two years old, will reside at 319 East Locust St., Bethlehem, Pa.
