Miss Schretter, Sgt. Jacoby Wed in Church

The marriage of Miss Blanche Margaret Schretter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaspar Schretter, of 17 East Garrison Street, and Sgt. Russell H. Jacoby, Jr., U. S. Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Jacoby, of 2544 Easton Highway, took place at 3 p. m. Saturday in Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. A. Augustus Welsh officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, a finger tip veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Miss Sally Schuler was her maid of honor. She wore a pale yellow taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Miss Pauline Divok, her bridesmaid, was similarly gowned in pale green and carried mixed flowers.

Donald Heckert, PO 1/c, was the best man and Daniel Snyder and Carl Beyer were ushers.

Miss Anna Quier played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. William Longnecker, the soloist. The church was decorated with palms and white gladioli.

A reception followed in the social rooms of the church after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York. The bride will reside with her parents.

Sgt. and Mrs. Jacoby, Jr., are both graduates of Bethlehem High School. Mrs. Jacoby is employed in the estimating department of the plant office of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Sgt. Jacoby was formerly employed in the bridge shop of the same company. He returned recently after 19 months service overseas, where he was stationed in England. He will return to camp for reassignment.
