

Lowright Jr., William J.

CENTER VALLEY PHYSICIAN
HOME ON LEAVE TO DEC. 1

Dr. William J. Lowright, Jr., Center Valley physician who is now a captain in the U. S. Army Medical Corps, is spending a leave until December at his home. He has been stationed at Fort Clark, Texas.

Upon termination of his leave, Captain Lowright will report to Carlisle Medical Barracks where he will receive a month's technical training. Thereafter he will return to Fort Clark.

Captain Lowright entered the service September 9 at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He became ill soon afterward and was hospitalized for several weeks. He was then assigned to Fort Clark. His father, Dr. W. P. Lowright, Sr., is caring for his practice for the duration.
