

Schantz, Henry

Pfc. Henry Schantz
Aids on Base in Reich

A NINTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND UNIT, ERDING, Germany—Twenty miles east of the infamous Dachau prison and 20 miles northeast of the battered city of Munich, a former number one Luftwaffe air depot is being rebuilt and expanded to double capacity to serve the European air forces.

Private First Class Henry Schantz, of Bethlehem, is performing a vital job in the establishment of this key European air depot which will serve the watchful Air Forces patrolling the American occupied section of Germany.

Pfc. Schantz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Schantz, live at 232 East Union Street, Bethlehem. His wife, Mrs. Mary Schantz, and daughter, Mary Joanne, live at 2207 Easton Avenue, Bethlehem.

December 17, 1945