

De Long, Raymond G.

Five Local Youths Given Combat Badges

DEC 27 1944
Five local youths with the Armored Infantry Battalions fighting on the Fifth Army front in Italy, have been awarded Combat Infantryman badges for actual participation in combat against the enemy.

Pfc. Raymond G. DeLong, son of Mrs. Minnie F. DeLong, 1944 Glendale Avenue; Pvt. Frank S. Stanz, son of Mrs. Stella Stanz, 409 East Tenth Street, Northampton, and Cpl. Nevin W. Steigerwalt, son of Ray E. Steigerwalt, 820 Maple Street, have been cited by the Sixth Armored Infantry Battalion.

Pfc. Eugene J. Zamadics, son of Stephen J. Zamadics, 1241 Mechanic Street, and Sgt. Ellsworth A. Iasiello, son of Mrs. Anna Iasiello, 210 West Broad Street, have been cited by the 11th Armored Infantry Battalion.

Dec. 27, 1944