Delbert M. Caton
Gets Commendation

Delbert Martin Caton, who has been serving in the U. S. Navy since August 19, 1941, received a commendation from the admiral under whom he served during an operation in the Pacific. Caton was a crew member under communications aboard the USS Nashville. In 1943 he transferred to the admiral's flag staff, where the rest of his enlistment was carried out. He is expected home in the near future.
