

Wasko, Joseph S.

Staff Sergeant

OCT 20 1944

Mrs. Helen Wasko, 834 Lamb Street, received a letter from her son, Sgt. Joseph S. Wasko, telling of his promotion to Staff Sergeant. Wasko completed 100 hours of flying in the South Pacific area as an aerial gunner.

Before his enlistment, he worked as an electrician at the Bethlehem Steel Company. Prior to entering the service, he attended Lehigh University night school. S-Sgt. Wasko graduated From Technical High School and recently observed his twenty-first birthday anniversary.
