

Lillie, Donald H.

NOW AT MEDICAL CENTER.

JAN 25 1943

Chief Pharmacist's Mate Donald H. Lillie, former resident of 1449 Turner Street, Allentown, and a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company, is now located at the National Medical Center in Bethesda, Md. This is his second enlistment, having previously served from 1930 to 1936.

Chief Lillie served with the U. S. Marine Corps in Cuba during the 1933 revolution. At the expiration of his enlistment in 1936 he entered the employment of the Bethlehem Steel Company and served on the medical staff for a short time. Later he was transferred to the cost accounting department where he was working before his second enlistment.
