WAVES Release Enough Men To Man Carrier

NOV 30 1943

In the contingent of WAVES leaving the procurement center in the Widener Building, Philadelphia, this month, there will be sufficient women reservists to free from shore jobs enough Navy men to man the USS Franklin, an aircraft carrier the Fourth Naval District Public Relations office announces today.

Seven young women from the Lehigh Valley are included in this contingent, the press release states. They are Misses Anna M. Bugel, 520 Twelfth Avenue and Frances E. Heisler of 1348 Easton Avenue, this city; Shirley M. Gilman of Lost Cave, Hellertown; Hazel L. Seibert, 13 Front Street, Catasauqua; Marion H. Smith, 278 Monroe Street, East Stroudsburg; Helen Paulik of 1519½ Chew Street and Carrie I. Frey, 1519 Chew Street, Allentown.
