

Hanzek, Joseph

PRISONER OF JAPANESE.

June 11, 1942
Joseph Hanzek, machinist's mate, first class, son of Mrs. Rose Hanzek, 215 Taylor Street, is a prisoner of war, held by the Japanese at Zenisuji, Shikoka Island, Japan, according to announcement today by the War Department.

In February of this year, his mother was notified that her son was probably taken a prisoner. Recently she received information relative to his capture, as verified by the Red Cross.

June 11, 1942