Mary M. Danko Becomes Bride of Pfc. Nicholas Vohar

AUG 21 1945
In St. Cyril and Methodius Church on Saturday morning, Miss Mary Margaret Danko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anna Danko, 416 First Terrace Street, was married to Pfc. Nicholas Vohar, son of George Vohar, 331 Gibson Street, Allentown. The Rev. Frederick Gasparovic performed the ceremony.

Cpl. Steve Danko, USMC, gave his sister in marriage. She wore a colonial gown of white satin with lace bodice and a finger-tip veil of net attached to a lace cap, with a strand of pearls entwined in her hair. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias centered with an orchid.

Miss Cecile Pecuck, the maid of honor, wore a gown of turquoise blue taffeta trimmed in rose. Miss Irene Danko, sister of the bride, wore rose taffeta and Miss Mary Dutko, cousin of the bride, turquoise taffeta. All three attendants wore colonial hats and carried colonial bouquets of roses.

Cpl. Steve Danko, brother of the bride, was best man and Cpl. Francis Pecuck and Cpl. William Svirzovsky served as ushers.

White gladioli, ferns and palms graced the church altar. Sister M. Marion, M. S. C., presided at the organ and accompanied the church choir.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Catholic Sokol Hall. After a wedding trip to Scranton the couple will reside at 416 First Terrace Street.

The bride attended Liberty High School and is employed by the Saucon Valley Country Club. The bridegroom was graduated from Scranton High School and was formerly employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
