

Masci, Jr., Gabor

Wounded

MAR 23 1945

PVT. GABOR MASCI

Pvt. Gabor Masci Jr.,
Wounded At Iwo Jima

Pvt. Gabor Masci Jr., was wounded in action with the Fourth Marine Division during the Iwo Jima invasion, according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Street.

Gabor Masci Sr., 1632 East Tenth

Pvt. Masci left for active duty in the Marianas over five months ago. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in May, 1943, and was sent to Parris Island, S. C., and Boston to receive his training. He is a Bethlehem High School graduate and a former employe of Bethlehem Steel Company. According to latest word received from Pvt. Masci, he is now recuperating in a hospital somewhere in the Pacific.

March 23, 1945