

Motil, Louis
Joseph

Killed in Action
OCT 24 1944

Staff Sergeant Louis Motil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Motil, Hellertown R. D. 1, was reported killed in action September 29, in a War Department telegram received by his parents.

He entered the service in March, 1943, and left for overseas duty in November. He had been fighting in Italy since March, 1944.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, Alex and Joseph, the latter recuperating in a West Virginia Hospital from wounds received in the French invasion.
