It is the beginning of the big game: Freedom says we are wack, but we won!

LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL

Liberty High School was built in the early 1920's. The school was originally just the Commons Building, but it has expanded significantly throughout the years. Three buildings have been added since: first, the Laboratory Center, which is under construction this school year; next the Memorial Gym, and finally the Klein Classroom Center. These buildings were constructed to accommodate Liberty's growing population, which now includes over 2,500 students and 150 staff members. This huge school is governed by principal, Mr. William Burkhardt. Liberty High School has become a model to all as a superior intellectual institution for the furthering of its students' minds.

Even after 76 years, Liberty's Commons Building remains the center of high school activites.

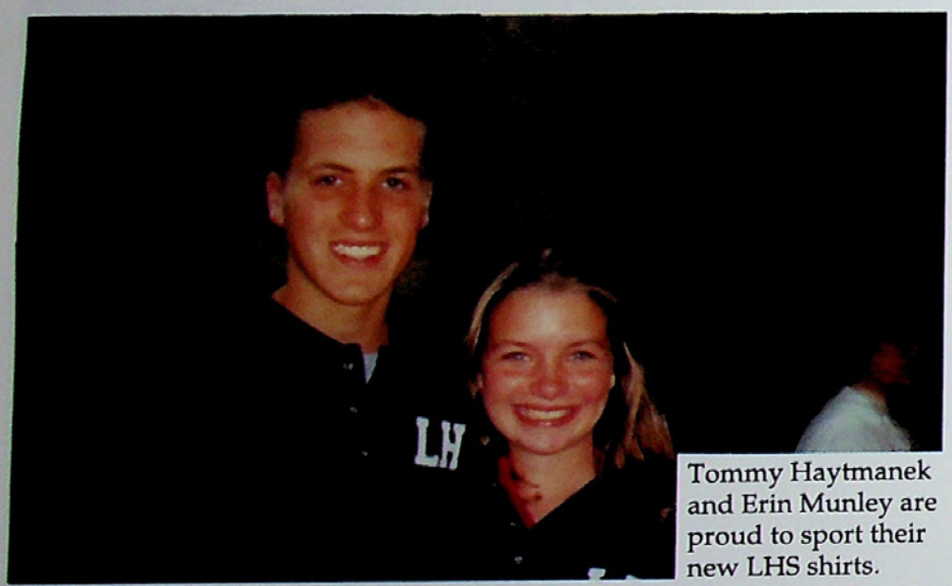
SPIRIT

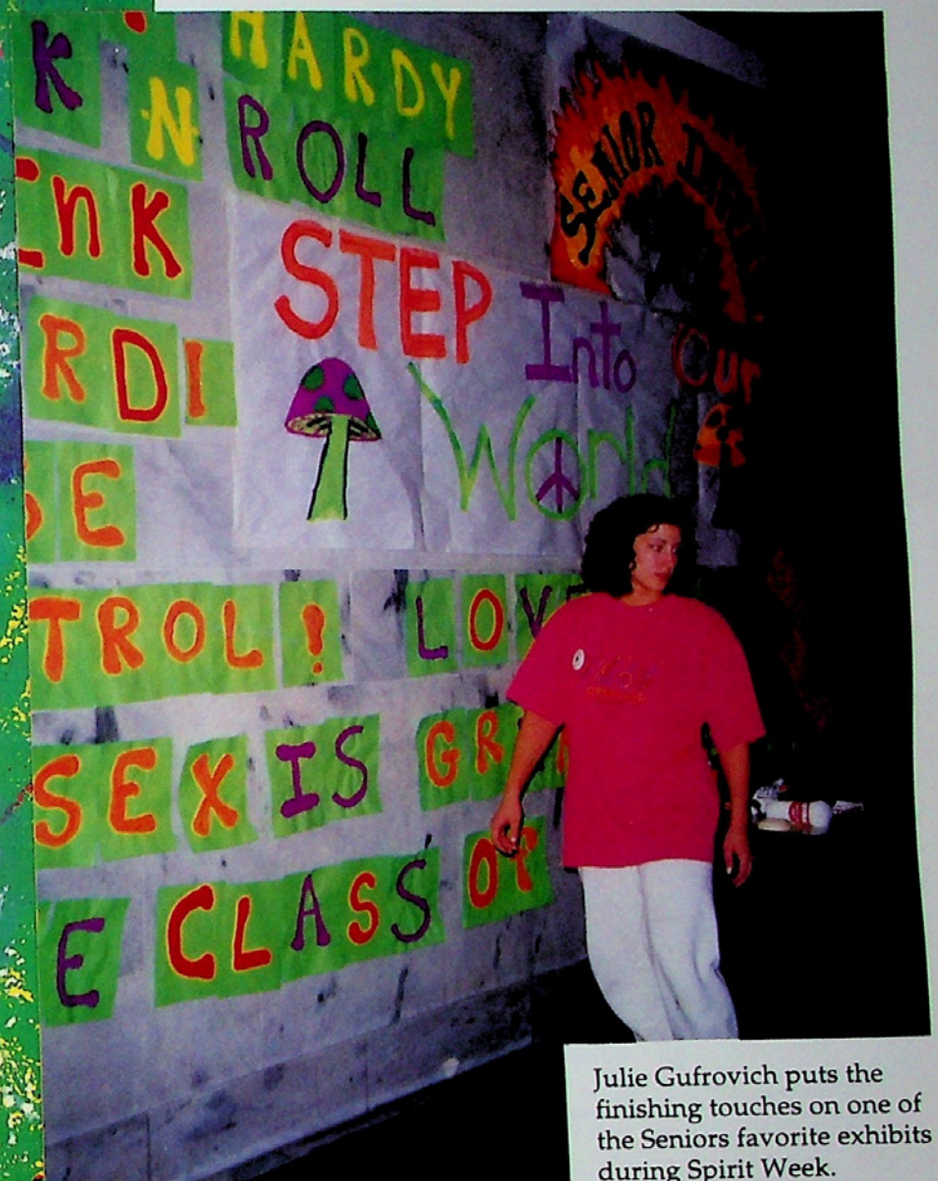
Gimme a "L..I..B..E..R..T..Y" - Whether its during Spirit Week, a pep rally, a big game, or just a regular school day, spirit can be found everywhere at Liberty. We commonly identify ourselves as the "Hurricanes" or the "Grenadiers," two names which show our immense school pride. In addition to our school nicknames, Liberty's colors, red and blue, also stir enthusiasm in everyone. Liberty students and faculty are filled with school spirit and pride. Our abundance of school spirit is only one quality which makes our school great.



Tommy Haytmanek and Erin Munley are proud to sport their new LHS shirts.

Mr. Burkhardt keeps an eye on this wild bunch during Senior Breakfast.

Andy Collins leaves the gym after a hot night of dancing.



Julie Gufrovich puts the finishing touches on one of the Seniors favorite exhibits during Spirit Week.

LHS majorettes prepare for another exciting game.

Stacy Matuczinski and Raegan Medgie are ready for another majorette routine.

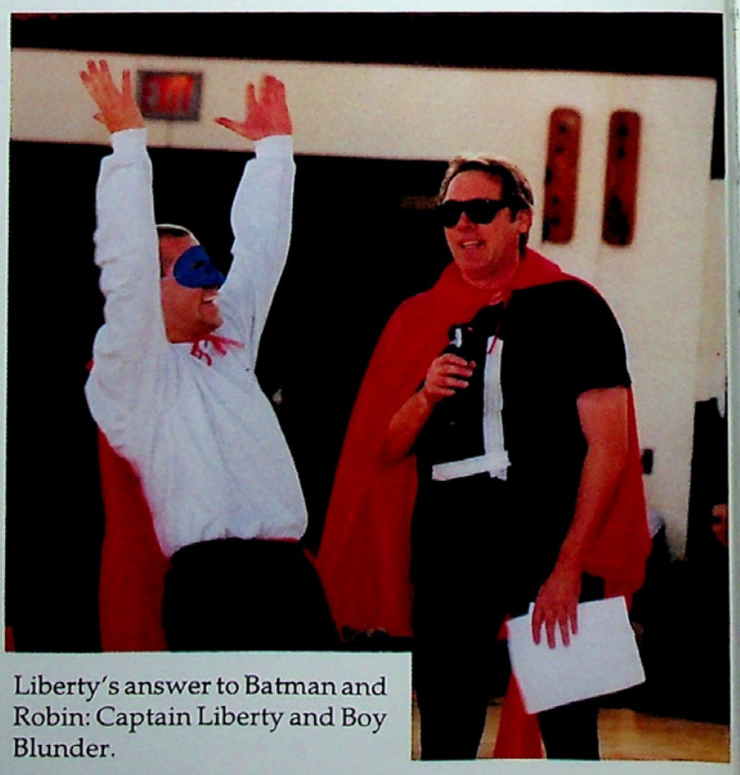
PERSONALITY

In a large and diversely populated school such as Liberty, people demonstrate a lot of different characteristics and senses of humor. Whether it's before school, during class, in the halls, or at after-school events, students can always be caught goofing off. After a long, grueling day of classes, students like to have fun and shake off the stress. Dress up days during Spirit Week, especially 70's Clash Day and Pajama Day, allow for everyone's true colors to shine through. Yearbook photographers have caught some of those truly unique students on camera attempting to spice up the school day. This section contains the unedited pictures that your classmates and teachers don't really want you to see!



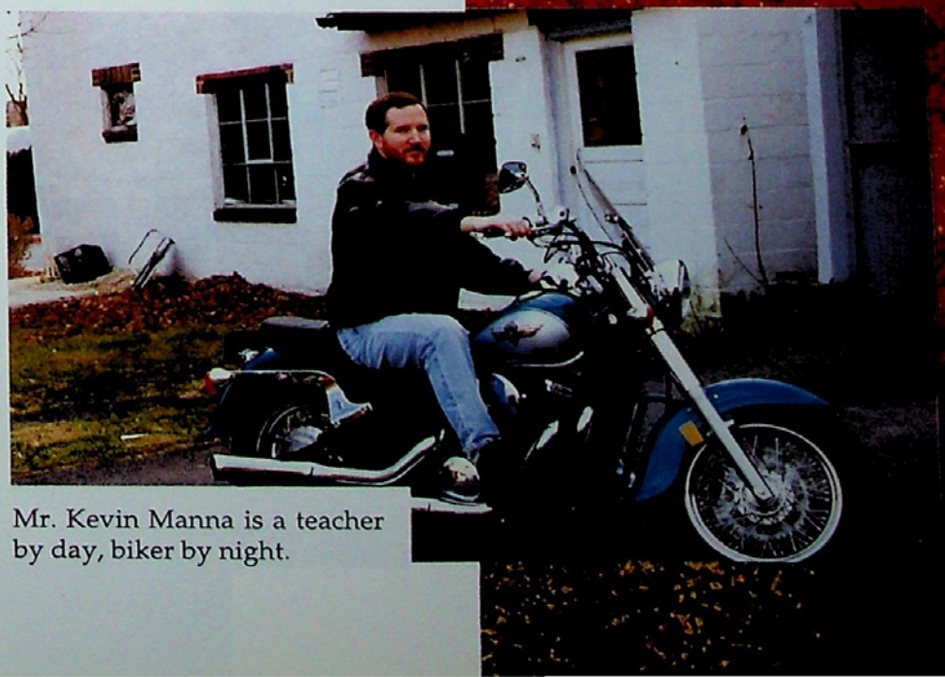
Liberty's answer to Batman and Robin: Captain Liberty and Boy Blunder.

Mr. Creyer, Mr. Tone, Mr. Gori, Mr. MacGill, and Mr. Long prove that our faculty has many other talents besides teaching.

Three of a kind: Aziz Attieh, Melissa Howard, and Mike Schneider.

Katie Schaffer shows her fun loving personality.

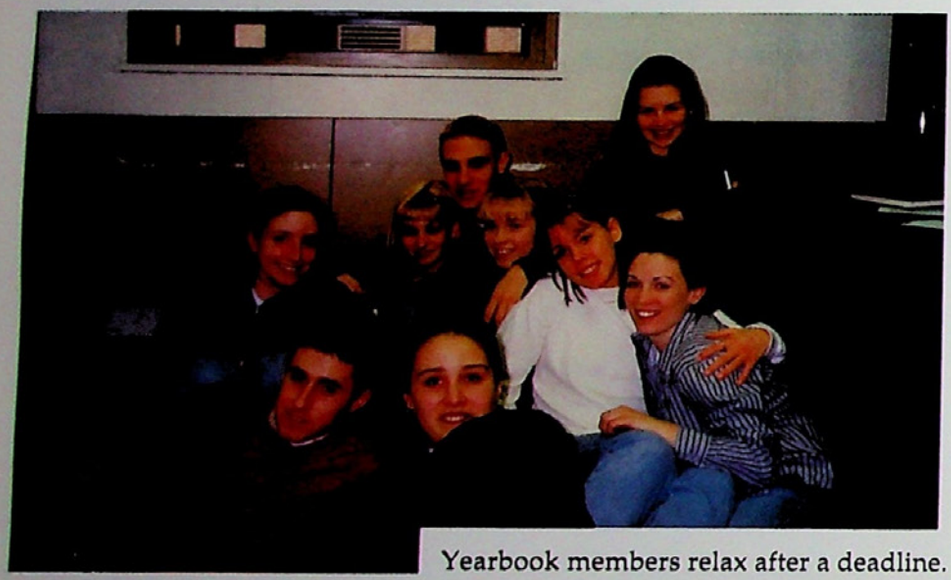
Aubrey Kenny models her new outfit.



Mr. Kevin Manna is a teacher by day, biker by night.

FRIENDSHIP

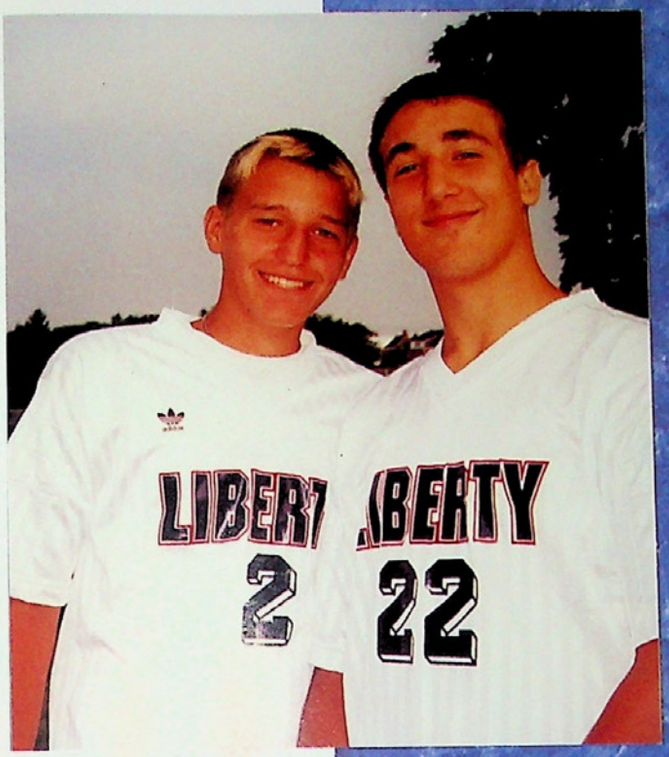
When each of us entered Liberty for the first time our freshman year, we were filled with excitement, anxiety, and even fear. After the first few days, each of us met many new people and made new friends. Friends seem to be one of the most important parts of high school. They laugh with us through the good times and pull us through the bad times. When we look back at our high school years, we might not remember specific courses we took or certain teachers we had, but we will never forget the friends we made.



Yearbook members relax after a deadline.

Freshman make many new friends during spirit week.

Friends forever: seniors boast their bus during the pep rally.



Soccer buddies Travis Armbruster and Giagio Colasante share time together after a game.

Kenoa Askerneese, Sheila Bennick, and Todd Mac Murtrie find time to talk.

These two good friends, Nancy Mata and Crystal Smith, meet up between classes.

The 1997 Girl's Homecoming Court.

TWILIGHT EXCITEMENT

Who says that school is always boring? Liberty High School is filled with excitement during after school hours between Homecoming and the Prom. Hundreds of students attend dances hosted by different clubs and organizations in the evenings. Other night activities include the annual Variety Show where students show off their talents and the Liberty Theatre productions put on in the fall and spring. The LHS Grenadier Band, Orchestra, and Choraliers also hold performances for students, family, and friends throughout the year. Liberty students always find places to go and people to see while having a good time.

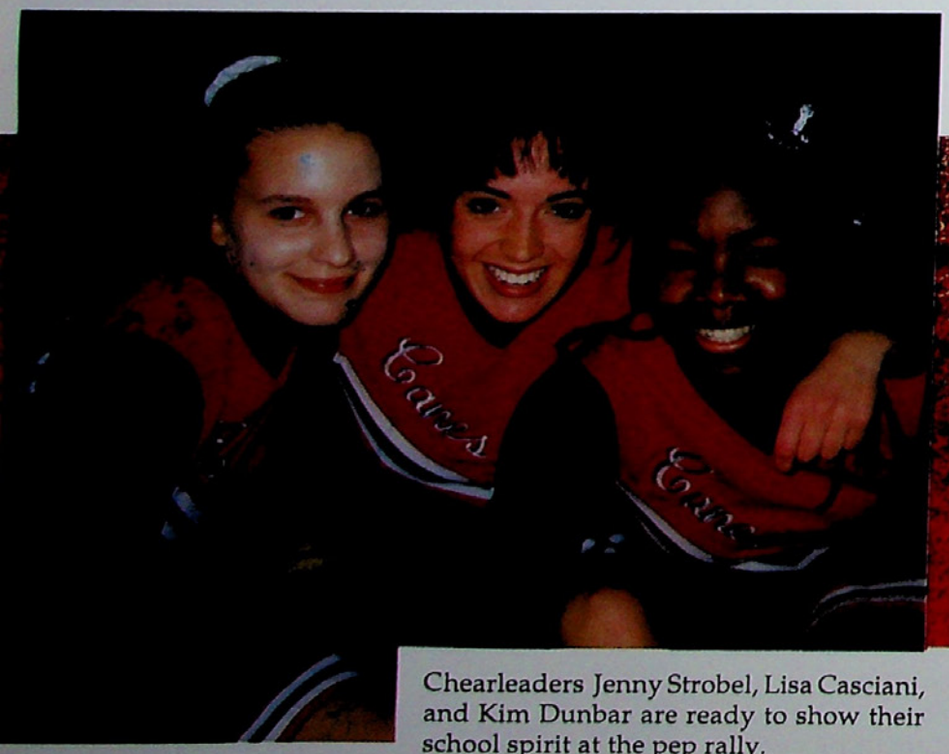
Greg Granitz prepares for a night on the town.

Liberty's championship football team is ready to win another game.

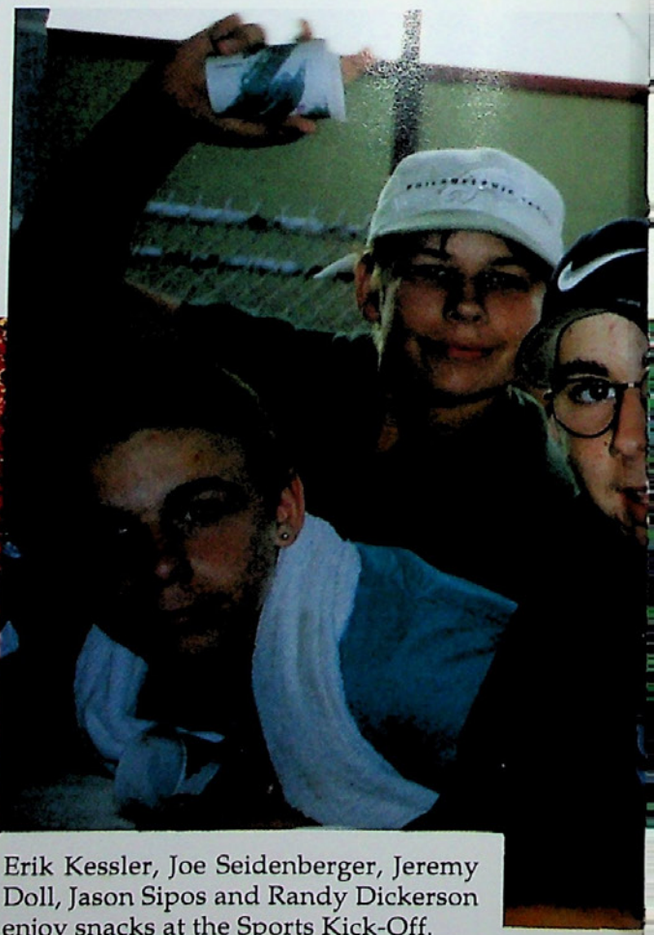
SPORTS

Liberty's athletic program is one of the best in the Lehigh Valley. Liberty students can participate in a wide variety of varsity, junior varsity, and intramural sports programs. Hundreds of Liberty students train hard everyday after school. Our students' determination and dedication has led to numerous achievements. This year, some notable achievements include: our football team winning the Eastern Conference Championship; our boys' soccer team winning the EPC Championship; and our girls' volleyball team advancing to states after capturing another EPC Title and winning District 11 Championship.

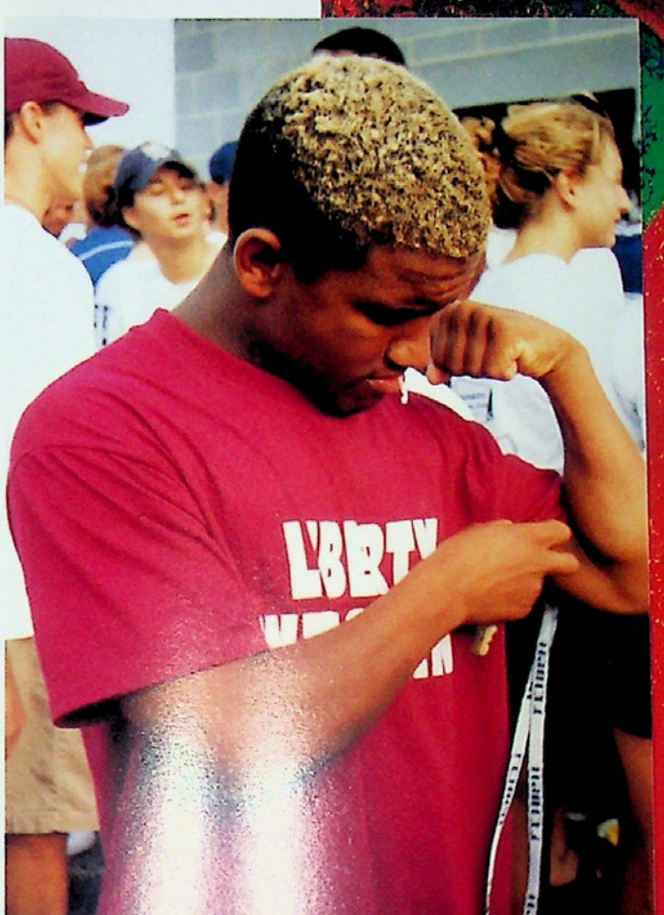
Goodbye East Penn Ave. This is the final year Liberty will be part of the EPC.



Chearleaders Jenny Strobel, Lisa Casciani, and Kim Dunbar are ready to show their school spirit at the pep rally.



Erik Kessler, Joe Seidenberger, Jeremy Doll, Jason Sipos and Randy Dickerson enjoy snacks at the Sports Kick-Off.



Derek Cox f[illegible] hi[illegible] muscles for [illegible]yon[illegible]

Liberty's soccer team is ready for another winning season.

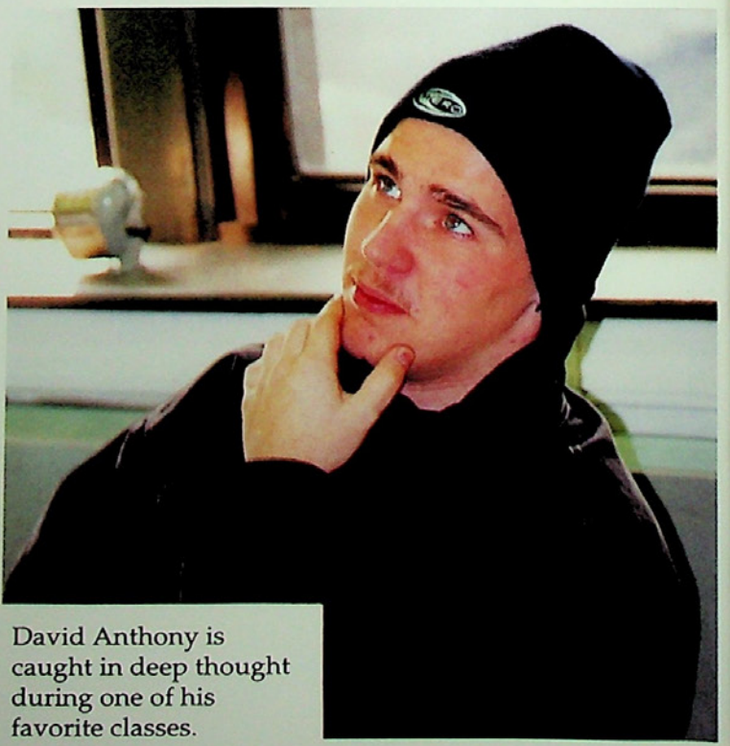
STUDENT LIFE

So much to do and so little time! With all of the activities to get involved in, Liberty is a very exciting and busy place. Every day after school, there are tons of meetings and programs that teachers and students run. Liberty offers a diverse range of activities, which include four foreign language clubs, Latino Leadership, SWAP and Scholastic Scrimmage. Many Liberty Students are involved in numerous activities and student leadership is seen everywhere. After-school activities allow for students with the same interests to get together and build strong friendships. With all of the different clubs available, Liberty never gets boring, but studying can sometimes be ignored.



David Anthony is caught in deep thought during one of his favorite classes.

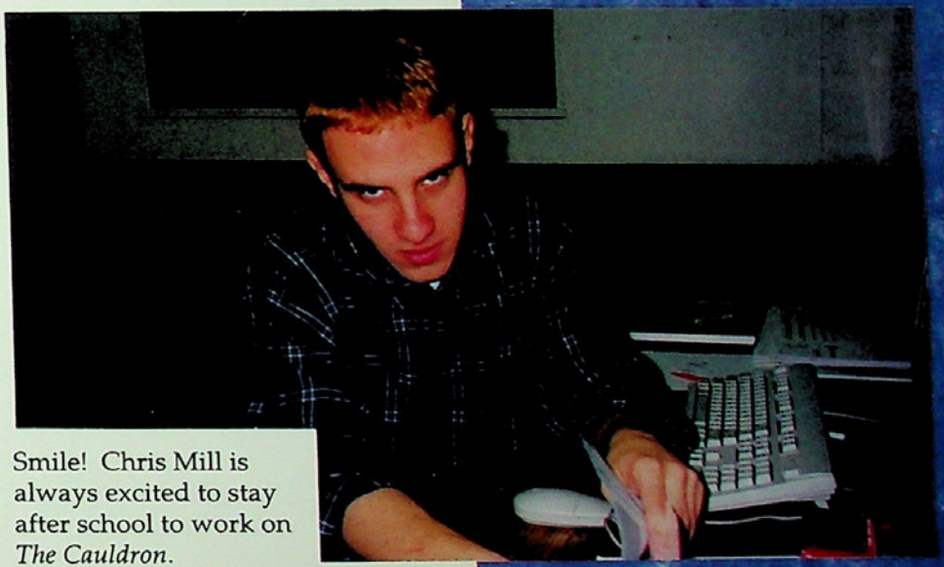
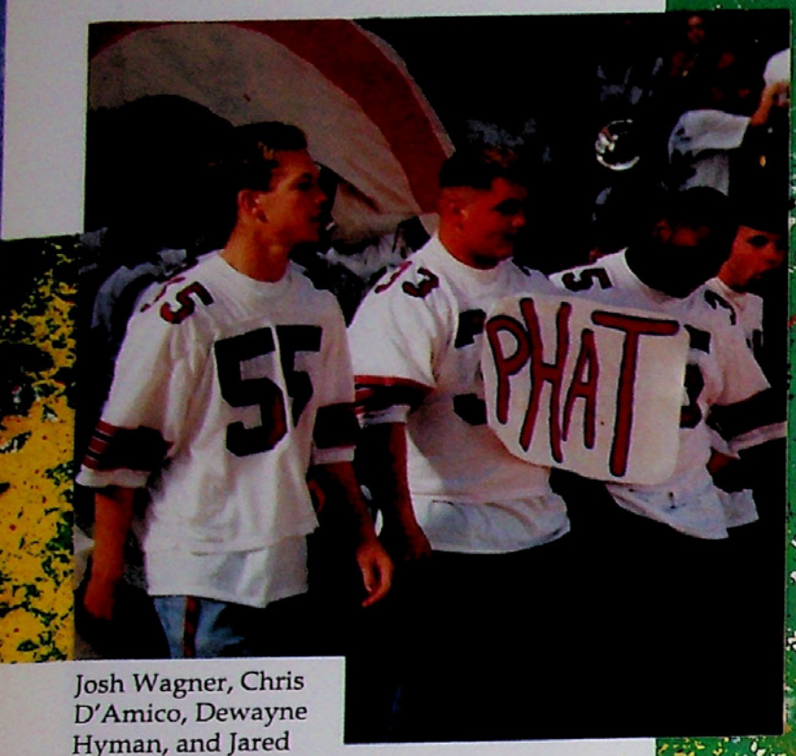
Mark Vidonya helps make signs for Spirit Week.



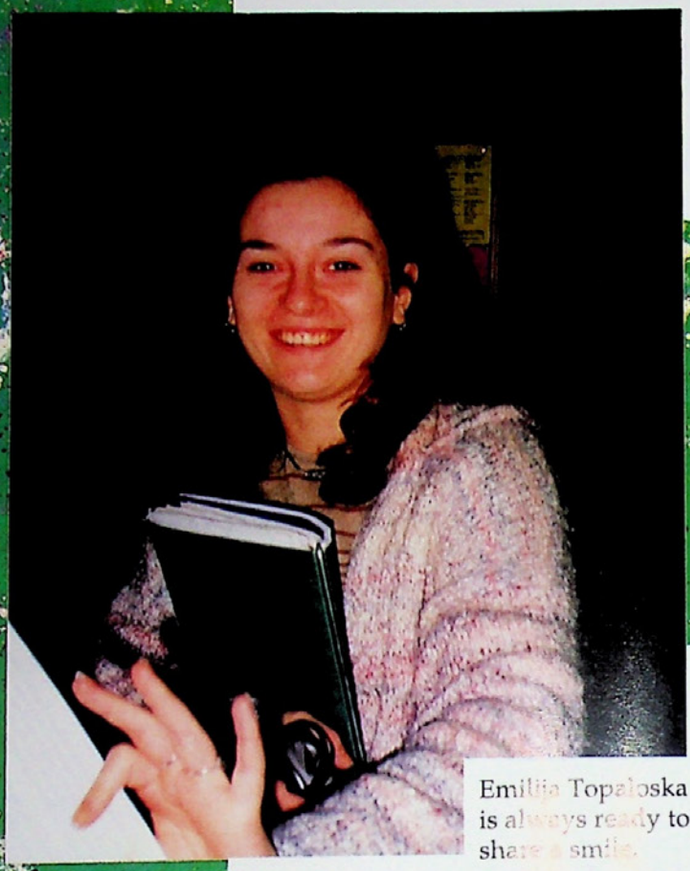
Smile! Chris Mill is always excited to stay after school to work on The Cauldron.

Cheryl Justice stays after school with Mr. Eric Smith for extra help.

What cool endzone painters; no wonder we won the game!

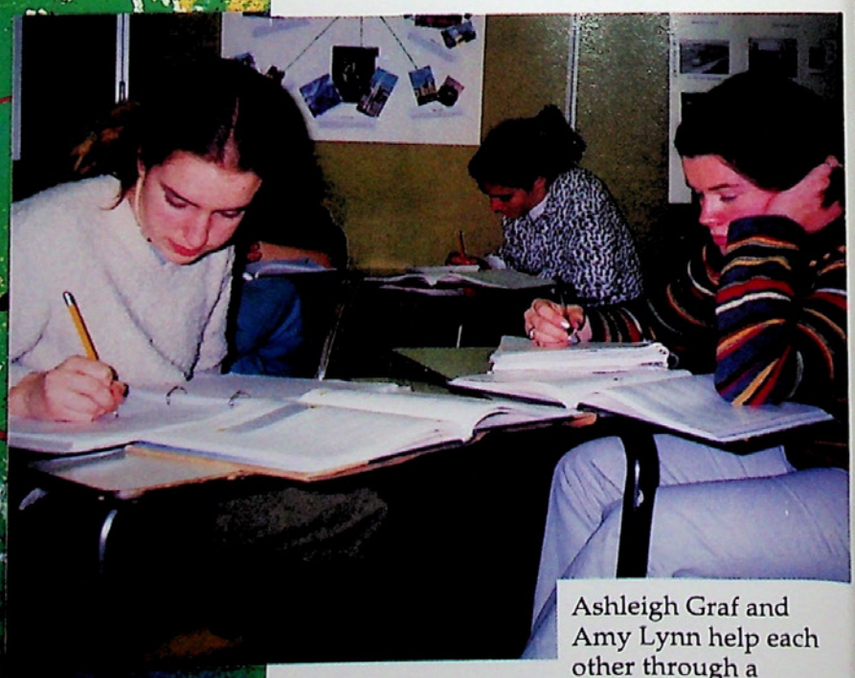


Josh Wagner, Chris D'Amico, Dewayne Hyman, and Jared Knauss prove our football team is #1.



Emilija Topaloska is always ready to share a smile.

Julie Zito finally finds a moment to relax.



Ashleigh Graf and Amy Lynn help each other through a challenging math problem.

CLASS OF 1998:

Finally our time has come to shine. We made it through four years of confusion and a variety of changes. There was Project Renaissance, a sellout prom, the Code of Conduct, and those despised ID badges. We have gone through a lot of good times and bad times, and still we have come out on the top of the world, which is where we stand now. The future is in our hands, and we have the power to shape it.

Thursday, June 17,1998, has come and gone. So what's left? We hope that we, this year's Cauldron staff, have captured all the good memories and that this book will be something that is always looked at to remember our times at Liberty High School. We hope that the Cauldron will always be special to everyone in the Class of 1998.

Now we are on our own and things seem kind of scary. We have our whole lives ahead of us to make our own choices and to choose our own paths. Always remember to follow your heart, you can accomplish anything you try. Best of luck in the future!

Words of Wisdom:

Dave Matthews Band: "I'm not going to change my ways just to please you or appease you."

- Sarah Favinger

"When you reach the end of the light and everything you've known and are about to step off into the darkness of the unknown, faith is knowing that one of the two things will happen: There will be something to stand on or you will be taught to fly."

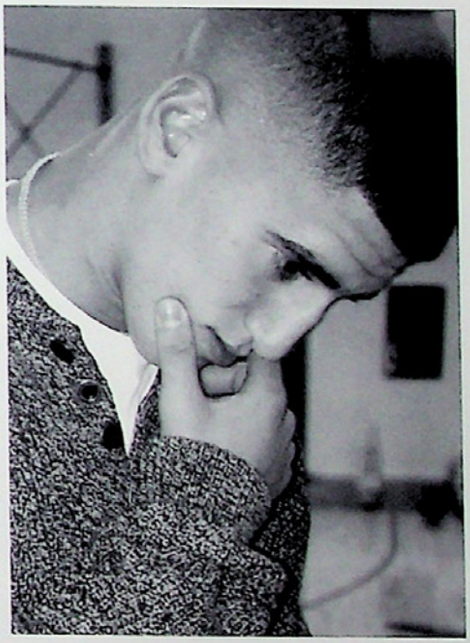
Our fearless leader:

Class president Matt Holt yells out the loudest cheer imaginable at the Spirit Week pep ralley.



Aziz Attieh ponders the lifelong question:

Are the juniors better than the seniors?

Hey! Shouldn't you be in class?

Ben Chando takes advantage of the warm summer weather.

Who's Got Spirit? The Junior Class shows exactly how much they have at the year's first pep-rally.

WHO HAS THE SPIRIT?

We have the spirit! There is nothing more fun than to have the entire student body jammed into the Memorial Gym to cheer on their fellow students. The sound of the Grenadier Band, the rhythm of the step team and the enthusiastic chants from the crowd bring all of the students together for a common purpose, to show their undying school spirit. Not to mention, most students are more than willing to miss an afternoon of classes to support their school.

The Liberty High School student body gets ready for another afternoon of spirit.

The Strong Will Survive!

THE JOY OF SPIRIT WEEK

Liberty students hurry to get the last of the Spirit Week decorations finished.

Emily Traupman looks exhausted after her first night of Spirit Week decorating.

The Liberty vs. Freedom rivalry is a tradition as old as the schools themselves. To add to the festivities, the week of the game, students in every grade level get together and decorate their designated part of the school. On the eve of the long awaited event, the pumped up decorators stay until almost mid-night. It is an evening of fun, practical jokes, and of course a little friendly competition between grades.

FACULTY
THE CORNERSTON
LIBERTY HIGH SCH

GES 12

PRINCIPAL

Mr. William Burkhardt

Mr. Burkhardt directs student traffic on the first day of school.

To The Class of 1998:

As you journey into the future with a rich heart and safe kept memories, I wish you all the warmest congratulations. Since you entered Liberty High School, your lives have run the gamut of experiences--some shared and some private, but all a part of the integral development into adulthood.

As graduating Seniors, it is my wish that you look back on your years at Liberty High School and treasure the memories. Memories of scholastic accomplishment and the values that your education has instilled with the knowledge that at Liberty education is not confined to the four walls of a classroom but encompasses every aspect of your lives.

As I write to you and reflect on the accomplishments of your class, I hope your memories are as fond as mine when I think of the social and sports activities that have made up your years here at Liberty. Memories of the star-filled night of the prom, the tiring but rewarding hours of practice for performances on the Liberty stage, or the pride as the Grenadier Band appeared at halftime. Can anyone forget the suspense filled moments on the fields of sports as we cheered the Hurricanes? It is my hope that the social and sports activities that you have been part of provided you with the practical foundation for getting along with people as you take on your futures; and your involvements here at Liberty High School have formed lasting and meaningful friendships.

You have all left your marks on Liberty High School. This yearbook is that place for the safe-kept memories of Liberty as you journey into the future.

My very best wishes to you all. You are always welcome to return to our hearts and halls whenever you may wish.

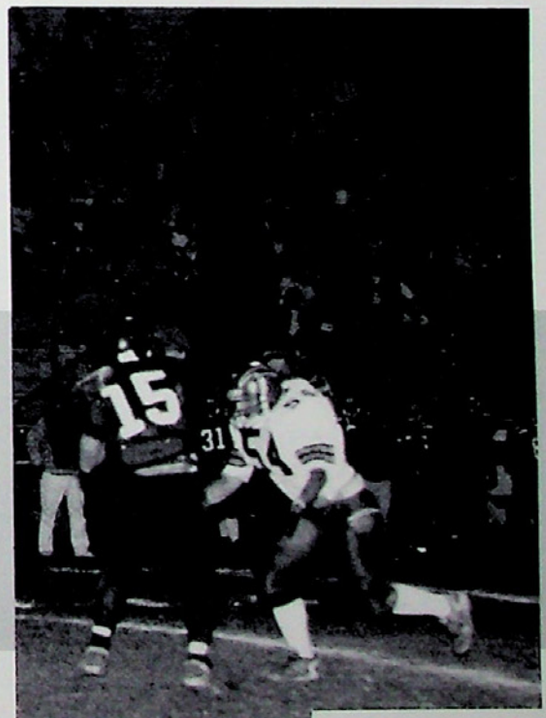
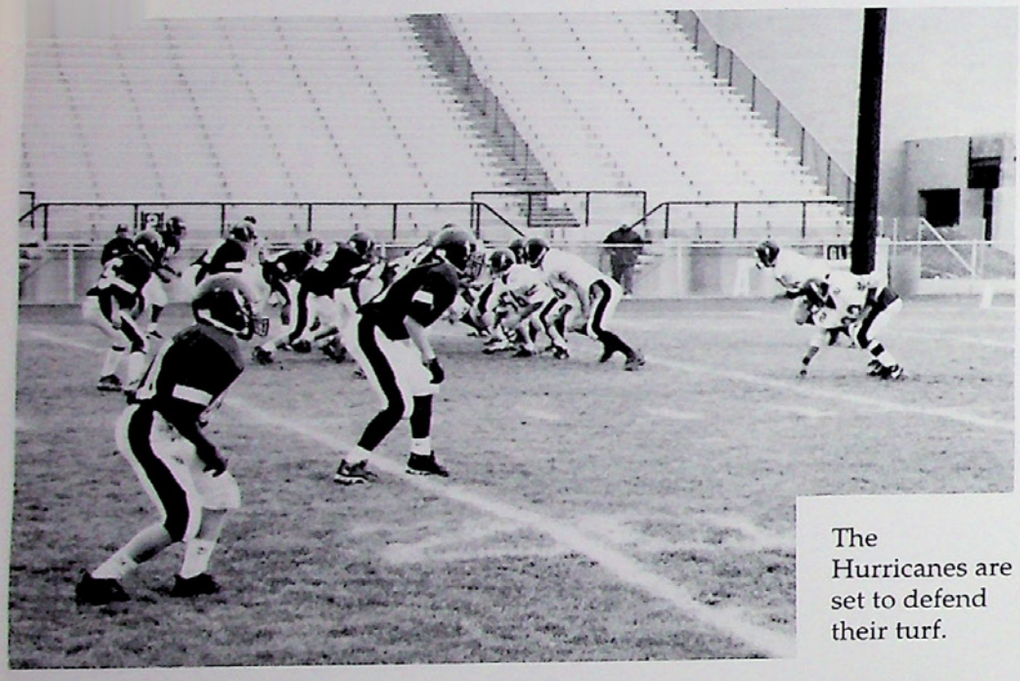
Darren Mason out maneuvers Central's defense.



The FINK attack, Darren's third sack of the season.

The 1997 Football season started with a bang when the team stomped all over Pottsville. Coach Richard Heffernan prepared the canes by working the team very hard over double sessions and in the weight room, in order to better their game. The two players chosen by the coaches to lead the team were Dewayne Hyman and Bob McClarin. Despite all the injuries, anyone could tell how strong a team the Hurricanes were because of the killer wins against Parkland and Freedom! Finishing off the season the Canes beat Northampton for the Eastern Conference Title. Congratulation to all the Football players for an excellent year!!

JV & FRESHMEN FOOTBALL



The Hurricanes are set to defend their turf.

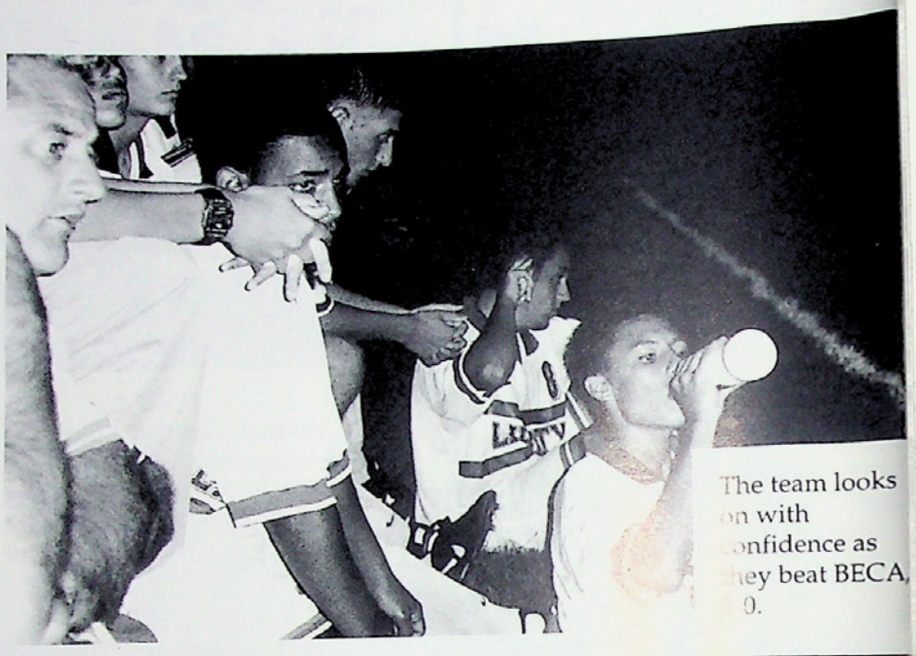
Jesse Mudri rolls to the outside looking for an open receiver.

Soccer

The 1997 Liberty Soccer team guided by Coach Sarkozy's knowledge and experience, made Liberty's legacy live on as the 1997 East Penn Conference Champions. New faces such as Danny Pontes and seniors Dave Kurvink (captain), Erick Macek, Stephan Rohal, Jeff Hartney, Mike Hixon, and the two junior captains Doug French and Dave Kelly. Important assets to the team these players, along with their teamates fought long and hard to obtain their goals.....their final goal, East Penn Conference Champs!



The team looks on with confidence as they beat BECA, 3-0.

Girls Volleyball

Once again, the Liberty Girls Volleyball team had a very impressive season. Ranked third in the nation, they captured the EPC title,for the second year in a row. Lead by captains Krystol Kessek and Crista Sewald, as well as Amy Christoff and Amy Falkenbach, Liberty was unstoppable. Under the guiding hand of Coach Trish Huff and Coach Jeanne Markovich, the 'canes were able to defeat rivals Freedom and BECA.

FRONT: Heather Buss, Kortney Dalrymple, Monica Ney, Beth Yencho, Sheena Sipio. WRESTLING

After winning the Wilson Tournament, the wrestling team knew that this was going to be a fantastic year. The line-up solidified with the return of Craig Israel, while his brother Mark Israel helped the lower weights. The Hurricanes finished fourth at the Ohio Ironman Tournament, where Chris D'Amico was the heavyweight champion. Four wrestlers from this year's team, Omar Rivera, Mario Stuart, Mark Werner, and Chris D'Amico, made the East Penn Conference All Star Team, which added to the pride of the Hurricanes. Mario Stuart and Matt Dudeck both placed first at Districts, and advanced to Regionals; Liberty also sent six wrestlers to States. Ice Hockey

This year's hockey season was a successfull one. An abundance of talent, skill, a lot of experience, and a few draft picks created a contending Liberty hockey team. Compared to last year's season, this year was outstanding! All the players' hard work and dedication payed off. Jordan Ozga, Jeff College, Tommy Haytmanek, Erick Macek, Ryan Henstenberger, Chris Fiadano, and the two goaltenders, Gabe Traupman and Kevin Fuhrmann played a major role in Liberty's success. Hockey has become one of the most popular sports at Liberty and remember, "this is by far the coolest game on earth."

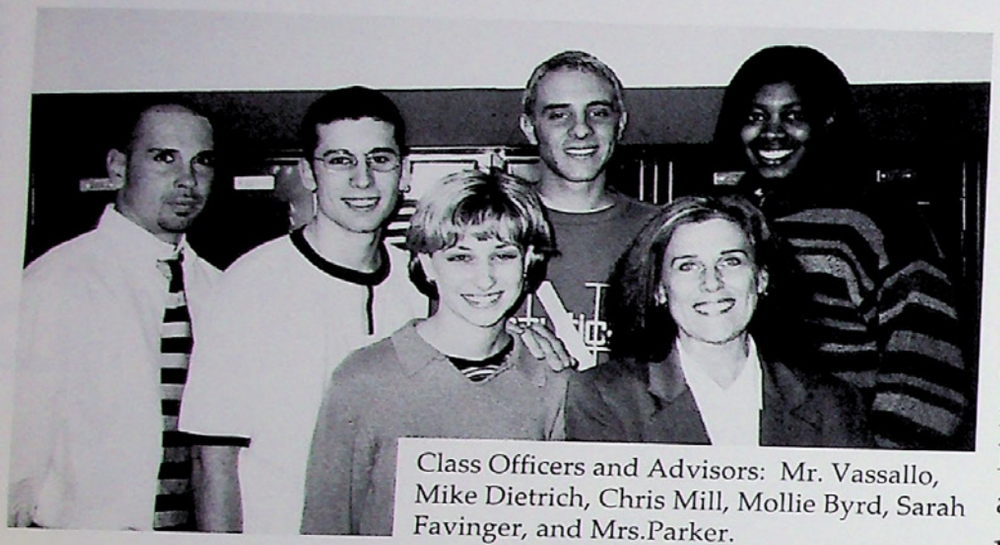
CLASS OF 1998



Class Officers and Advisors: Mr. Vassallo, Mike Dietrich, Chris Mill, Mollie Byrd, Sarah Favinger, and Mrs.Parker.

The Senior Class has had a great year! We have gone through many changes throughout the past four years and have always come out on top. This Senior Class was the first to sell-out their prom tickets and the last to experience those great chemistry teachers. This class is under the advisement of assistant principal Mr. Kammerer and advisors Mr. Vassallo and Mrs. Parker. Our class is lead by president Mollie Byrd, vice-president Mike Dietrich, treasurer Chris Mill, and secretary Sarah Favinger. Best of luck to the class of 1998 in the future.

Members of the class of 1999 cheer loudly at a pep ralley to show they're #1.

There may be some argument as to which is the best class at Liberty. If you ask Junior Class President Matt Holt that question, you will probably hear him scream: "99's number one." The rest of the officers are Vice-President Julie Shahda, who is the hardest worker of the group, Treasurer Dave Arnold, and Secretary Raegan Medgie. The Class of 1999 had a successful Spirit Week this year, with tons of great decorations. They also were the sole organizers of this year's memorable Prom.

CLASS OF 2000

The Class of 2000, under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Roman and Mrs. Beth Ann Shive, has proven to be an upcoming force. Students of this class voted there leaders to be Bryan Shay, Dave Andrews, Kate Bauer, and Kerry D'Entrone for there sophomore year. During Spirit Week, the sophomores did an outstanding job decorating the first floor of the Klein Classroom Center. Good luck to the sophomores next year, just keep thinking only 2 more years left.

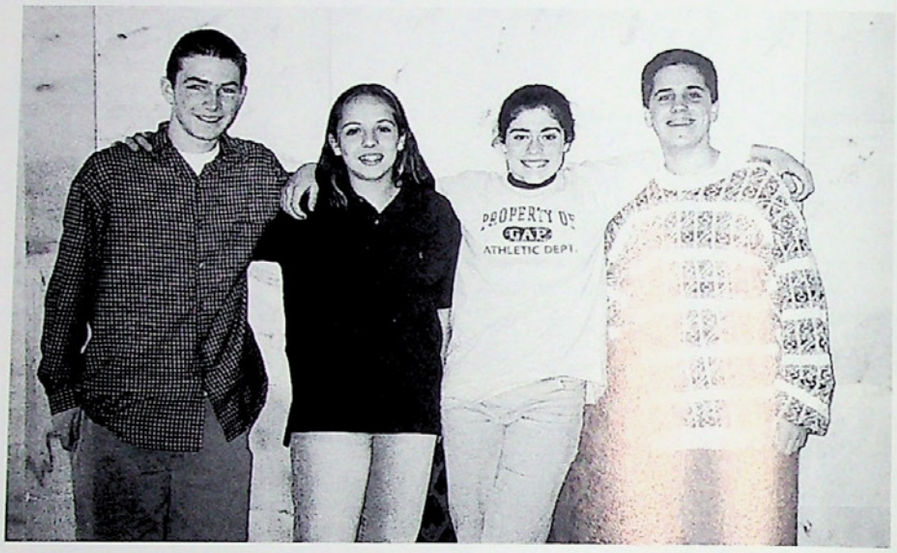
CLASS OF 2001

Welcome to LHS, Class of 2001! The new freshman class is filled with lots of spirit and excitement as they enter the wonderful world of Liberty High School. With the help of class advisors, Mr. Mark Autrey and Miss Jennifer Horvath, 750 students are being prepared for various class endeavours. Freshmen already made their mark during Spirit Week with their elaborate display and by hosting a casual dress dance. With their first year being such a success, the Class of 2001 will prove to be outstanding in its remaining years here at Liberty.



Class Officers: Sean Crawford, Jessie Papesh, Annie Rodgers, and Colin Shay

HOMECOMING

On the evening of October 3, 1997, Liberty's student body got "jiggy wit it" at the annual Homecoming dance. Over 1,000 people came out to dance the night away and "shake their booty." A bunch of "Men in black" and "Ladies in red" strutted their stuff and seemed to enjoy themselves at this great event. Earlier in the week, seniors had a chance to choose this year's Homecoming Court. Before the football game against Central, Demetrius Early and Marisa Miller were crowned the Royal Couple. Over all, this years Homecoming weekend was a blast for all of Liberty's students.

Spirit Week

Spirit Week is always everyone's favorite week at LHS . This year's theme days included: 70's Clash Day, Pajama Day, Hat Day, Class Color Day, and Red and Blue Day. Each day was a chance for all Liberty students and faculty to show-off their tremendous school pride. The week started with a huge class rivalry. Each class spent countless hours after-school making decorations to coordinate with a chosen decade. Finally, each class picked a different hallway and decorated it Thursday night. The week ended with a big pap rally in the Memorial Gym, highlighting the traditional "Battle if the Classes." Although the classes competed against each other throughout the week, everyone came together to support our school during the big Liberty/Freedom game. Our victory in the game marked the end of a very exciting and fun-filled week.

Band Concert

The annual Grenadier Band Concert, directed by Mr. Gregory MacGill and Mr. Kevin Long was held on Friday, March 20 and Saturday March 21. The memorial gym was packed with people excited to see the Best Band in the Land perform. The show was a success as usual, filled with music as the Grenadier Band, Pipe Corps, Highland Dancers, Color Guard, and Majorettes displayed their different talents. The main event of the concert is the Military Tatoo. This features the Highland Dancers performing the Sword Dance, the Drum Solo done by the Pipe Drummers, and the Pipe Corps. The conclusion of the show highlights the entire the band with their superb finale of Rule Brittainia. The Band Concert is a another great tradition of Liberty High School.

BAND TRIP

"Zipadee-Do-Da!" Liberty High School's Grenadier Band whistled as they came back from their trip to Orlando and St. Petersburg, FL. The Band left for the most magical place on earth on March 31 and came back to the Christmas City on April 5. While in Orlando, the "bandos" ventured throughout The Magic Kingdom, Epcot, and MGM Studios leaving behind the greatest impression and also being part of the magic. After visiting Mickey and the gang, the band traveled to St. Petersburg where the magic they were a part of brought them the title of "The Best Band In the Land" in the Festival of States parade. "Now it's time to say good-bye!" ...until the next Band Trip!

Winter Concert

This year's annual Winter Concert was held on Friday, December 19, 1997, in our auditorium. Many students and parents filled the auditorium to hear the melodic sounds of the talented Liberty students who performed in it. This show was directed by Ms. Nancy Shumaker and Mr. Kevin Long, who worked with students since the beginning of the year to create such a masterpiece performance. The Winter Concert featured a surprise song directed towards Mr. Burkhardt from the "Quincy Jones Soulful Celebration." The Winter Concert was a wonderful night sure to bring anyone Holiday Cheer.

Spring Concert

This year's annual Spring Concert was held on Friday, March 6, 1998. Many Liberty parents and students came to enjoy this great show held in Liberty's auditorium. The show was directed by Ms. Nancy Shumaker and Mr. Kevin Long who did an excellent job of showing off Liberty's musical talent. The Choir, Concert Choir, A capella singers, and Orchestra combined to entertain the audience with a great variety of songs. The show featured the Choraliers and the Concert Choir singing the "Rhythm of Life." As always, the night was filled with the sound of elegance and magic.

SADD

SADD, which stands for Students Against Drunk Driving, is a club aimed at preventing drinking and driving. SADD was guided by Miss Kapsalis and Ben Miosi (president) this year. Under their supervision, SADD hosted "Red Ribbon Week" where many Liberty students and faculty sported red ribbons in recognition of the problems of drinking and driving. Also, members of SADD were involved in the "BABES Program" where they traveled to different elementary schools explaining the dangers of driving under the influence. SADD is one of the most beneficial clubs at Liberty.

OUR TOWN

Liberty Theater presented "Our Town" on December 5th and 6th. Mr. Eric Smith directed yet another wonderful play. The Stage Manager, Jeff Hartney, narrated the life story of Emily Webb (Devon Santillo) and George Gibbs (Dave Andrew). After dying during childbirth, Emily Webb realizes that you should enjoy the pleasures of life while the chance is still there. Once again, Mrs. Stephanie Smith designed the perfect costumes. Mrs. Gayle Justice also contributed her knowledge and time to help the cast prepare for opening night. "Our Town" was a successful production that enlightened the audience.

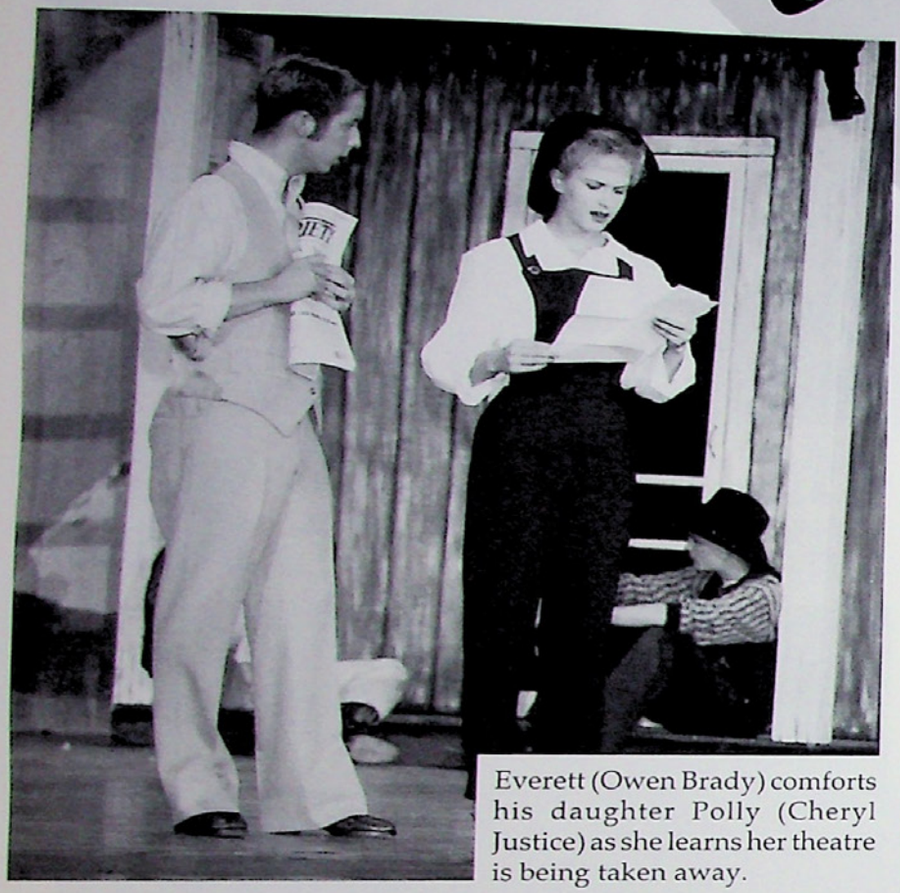
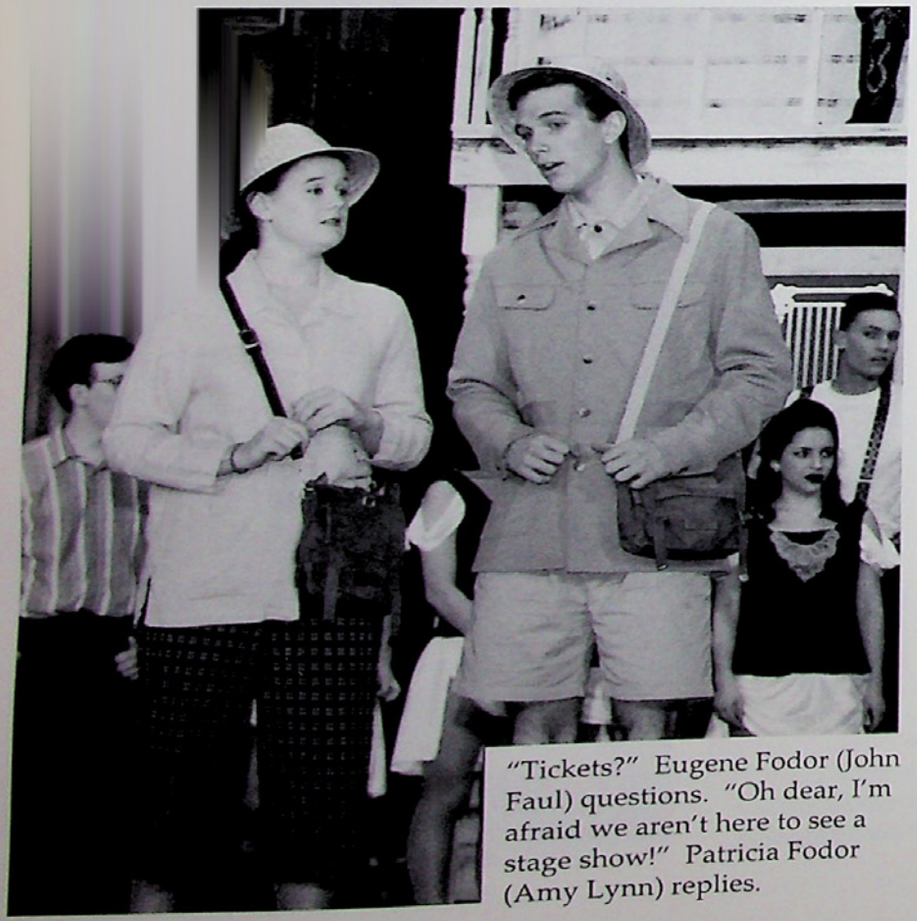
CRAZY FOR YOU



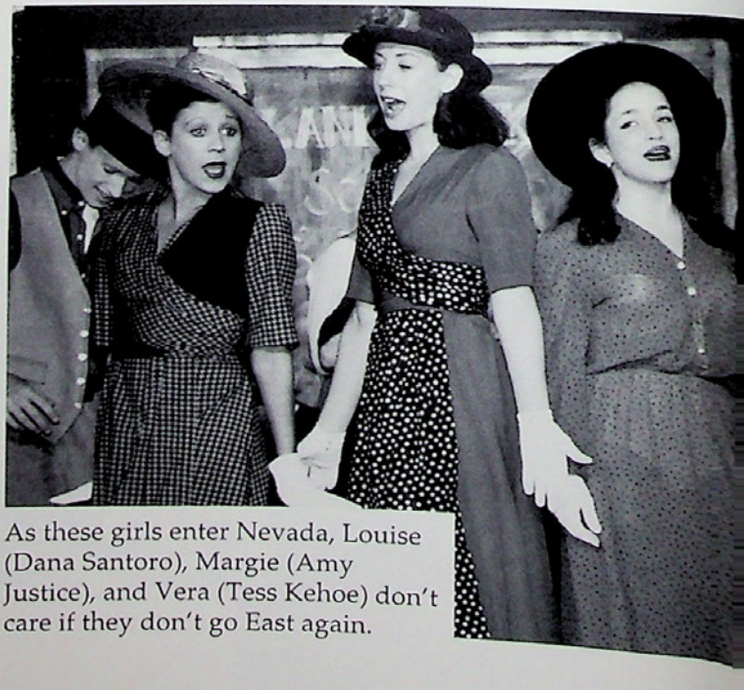
Everett (Owen Brady) comforts his daughter Polly (Cheryl Justice) as she learns her theatre is being taken away.

"Let me give you the low-down.....Liberty's crazy for you!" This was made clear on April 30, May 1,2 when Bethlehem embraced Liberty High School's production of "Crazy For You," directed by the highly talented Mr. Eric Smith. Every night, the floor was sold out and the balcony was filled. The cast began rehersals in January, meeting for acting, singing and choreography. As the opening night approached, practices became more intense but the cast kept a "Stiff Upper Lip" through it all. The long hours each Thespian devoted to practice was well paid off by three nights full of laughter, smiles, memories and standing ovations. "Who can ask for anything more?"

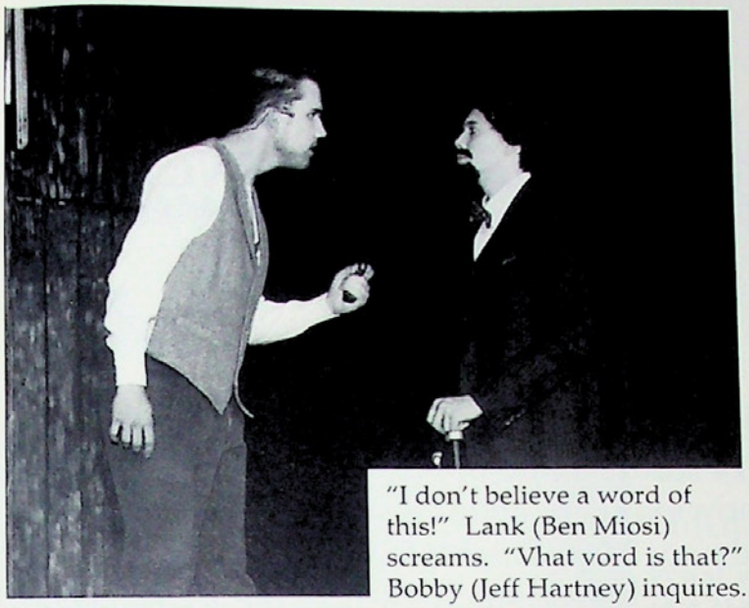
This bunch of lazy drifters aren't doin' much of anything.



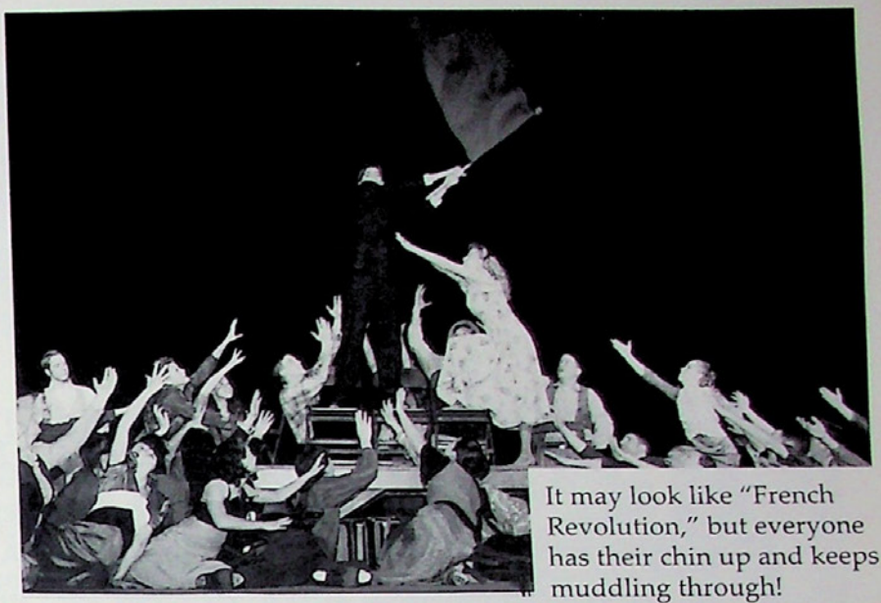
"Tickets?" Eugene Fodor (John Faul) questions. "Oh dear, I'm afraid we aren't here to see a stage show!" Patricia Fodor (Amy Lynn) replies.



As these girls enter Nevada, Louise (Dana Santoro), Margie (Amy Justice), and Vera (Tess Kehoe) don't care if they don't go East again.



"I don't believe a word of this!" Lank (Ben Miosi) screams. "Vhat vord is that?" Bobby (Jeff Hartney) inquires.



It may look like "French Revolution," but everyone has their chin up and keeps muddling through!

What were your first impressions of Liberty?

"Liberty is a huge school. At first it looked like a jail, only without a fence. Once inside I was surprised at how nice the school was. The teachers here are great."

Have you had any memorable experiences here?

"I have new experiences every day. I will never forget Spirit Week and decorating the school. I had never done anything like that before. I had a great time."

Do you think you'll return to the states?

"I will continue my education here if I get into a U.S. college. If not, I will certainly come back to visit everyone I've met."

"I just want to thank you guys for making my stay here the best experience in my life. I will never forget you and all of the fun I've had with everyone."

Thanks,
Emilija

ARNSTEIN (Arnie) HOSAAS

Bokn, Rogaland, NORWAY

What were your first impressions of Bethlehem? Liberty?

"A nice little town, a good place to live. I had a hard time getting around at first because it is so flat; but it didn't take long to get used to it. Liberty is big and crowded. There are a lot of strange rules to follow. The teachers I have are all very good and I love my classes."

What activities have you become involved in?

"Soccer, indoor track, and outdoor track. In my spare time I like to travel or hang out with my friends."

Have you had memorable experiences while in the U.S.?

"I don't think that I'll ever forget my first day in Bethlehem. When I had only been in the country for a few hours, I went to Musikfest and saw the band, 'Brother.'"

Do you think you will return to the states?

"Yes, I will probably visit Bethlehem in a year or two. Maybe I will study for a few years in an American college."

INVESTMENT CLUB & SPEECH & DEBATE

The Investent Club is a new club here at Liberty. The club was formed this year and is advised by Mr. Caccavo. This club teaches students the principles of investing. Members of the Investment Club entered a competition known as the "Investment Challenge" this year. This club is an excellent new addition to Liberty's after school activities. The Speech & Debate Team is for students who excel in oratory delivery. This club is advised by Mr. Markovich, who teaches students to be quick with both words and wit. This year, senior John Fegan qualified for a national competition in Detroit, MI, held over Memorial Day Weekend.

Variety Show

Variety Show "hostesses" Aziz Attieh, Chris Mill, Craig Israel, Owen Brady, and Ben Miosi show their true colors.

The Variety Show, which was held on March 11, was a huge success. Students from all grades gathered to show off their different talents in front of the rest of the school. This year's show, made up of sixteen entertaining acts, was hosted by Liberty's own "Spice Girls." The show, which was organized by Miss Kapsalis and the Student Government, helped to raise can goods which were donated to a local charity. Once again, the Variety Show was the place to find the hidden talents of many Liberty students.

GRENADIER BAND

Mr. MacGill and Mr. Long stop directing for a few minutes to play some tunes.

The Liberty High School Grenadier Band is filled with many talented and dedicated musicians. Ranging from the boisterous echoes of the trumpet, to the sweet melodies of the flute, the sound of this band is sure to please all ages. Directed by Mr. Gregory MacGill and Mr. Kevin Long, the Grenadiers are 250 members strong. The Grenadier Band is well-known for its spectacular field show performances throughout the football season. Our Band is also famous for its Military Tattoo during the annual Band Concert. This year, band members traveled to Florida where they participated in three parades at Epcot Center, Magic Kingdom and The Festival of States.

MAJORETTES & HIGHLAND DANCERS

Did you ever wonder who those talented girls twirling their batons are? If you guessed the "LHS Majorettes" then you are right. These hard working girls put in many hours both before and after school to perfect their routines. This bunch of girls can be seen at pep rallies, football games, band concerts, parades, and much more. The LHS Highland Dancers are a group of majorettes who perform the traditional Scottish Sword Dance, The Fling and The Reel at concerts. These dedicated girls are sure to bring excitement and life anywhere they go.

Pep Squad

One of Liberty's most spirited groups of students is the Pep Squad. The Pep Squad is responsible for the colorful, creative hoops in which the football team dashes through during the pep rallies and football games. Under the advisement of Ms. Flyte, the Pep Squad has shown tons of school spirit and great support for our football team. Their dedication and hard work is always displayed by their awesome hoops, posters, and banners.

Scholastic Scrimmage

Scholastic Scrimmage is a group of over twenty Liberty students who meet every week to sharpen their skills in answering detailed trivia questions. Mr. Sweigard, advisor of this club for the last three years, devotes much of his time to preparing his team for a televised competition. Every year, our team challenges over thirty other schools in this game of skill. Meggan Christman, Nate Kushner, Matt Williams, and Jon Faul were the members of this year's competing team.

LIBERTY LIFE

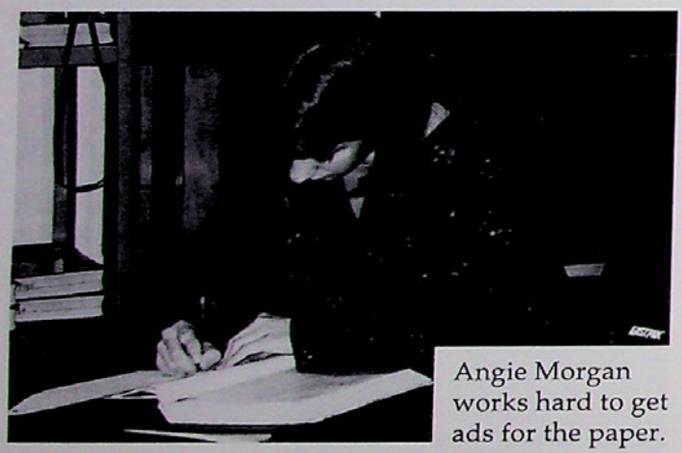
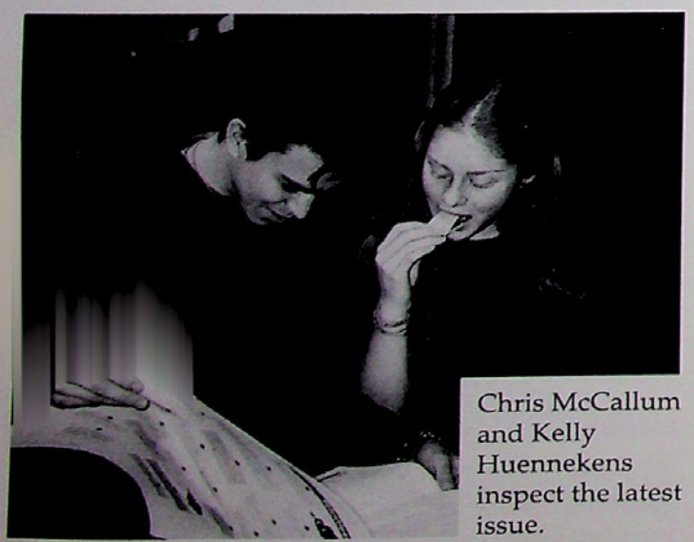
The Liberty Life staff is composed of a group of students who are dedicated to spreading Liberty news to the entire student body. The staff consists of students in all grade levels who cover sports, news, and feature stories. The Liberty Life staff produces six or seven issues every year. This year, Liberty Life produced a special Spirit Week edition which outlined the Freedom/Liberty rivalry and highlighted the top ten reasons why Liberty is the better school. In September, Dr. Deborah Allan replaced Mr. Roger Hudak, the legendary advisor of Liberty Life for over twenty-five years. Throughout the year, Dr. Allan worked closely with head editors, Becca Gregor, Marc Repnyek, and Sarah Favinger, to produce such high-quality editions. Liberty Life is very important because it lets students voice their opinions and find out what is happening in our school.



Angie Morgan works hard to get ads for the paper.



Chris McCallum and Kelly Huennekens inspect the latest issue.

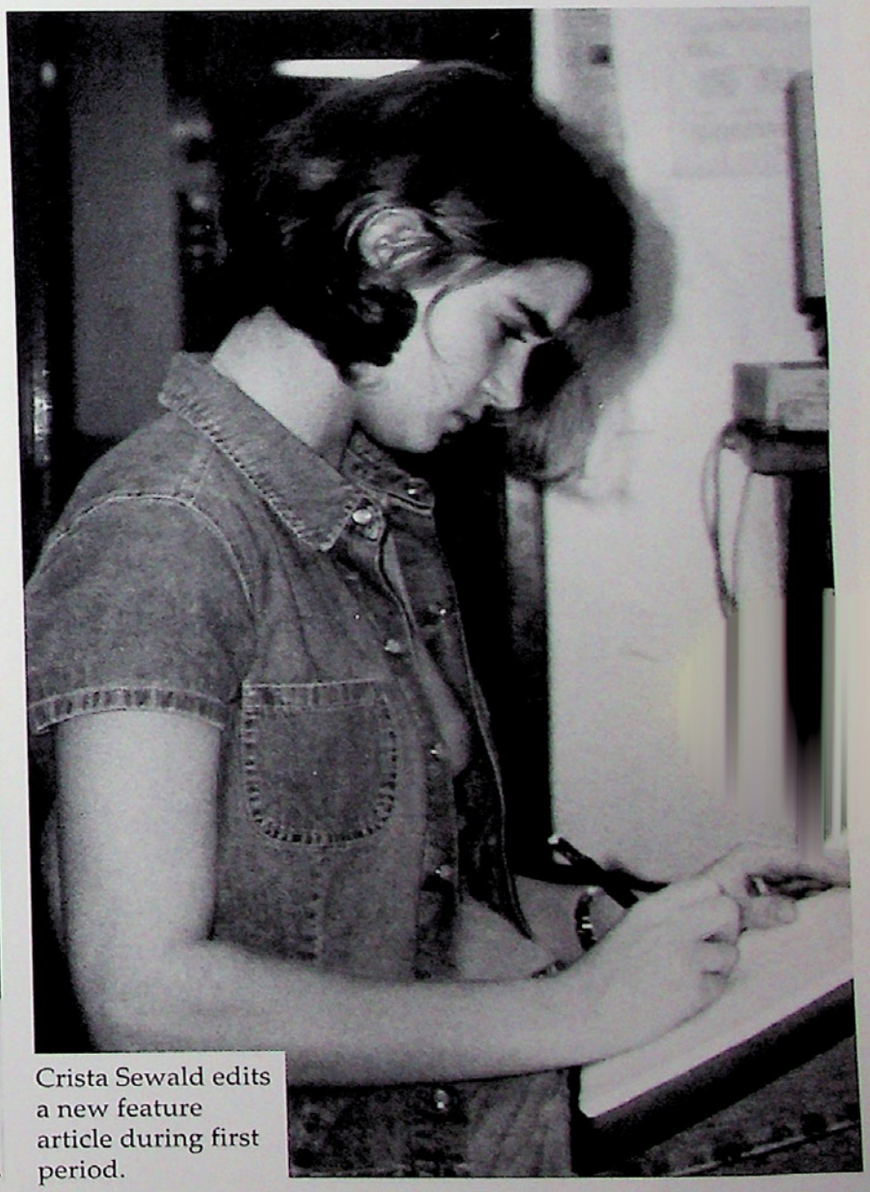
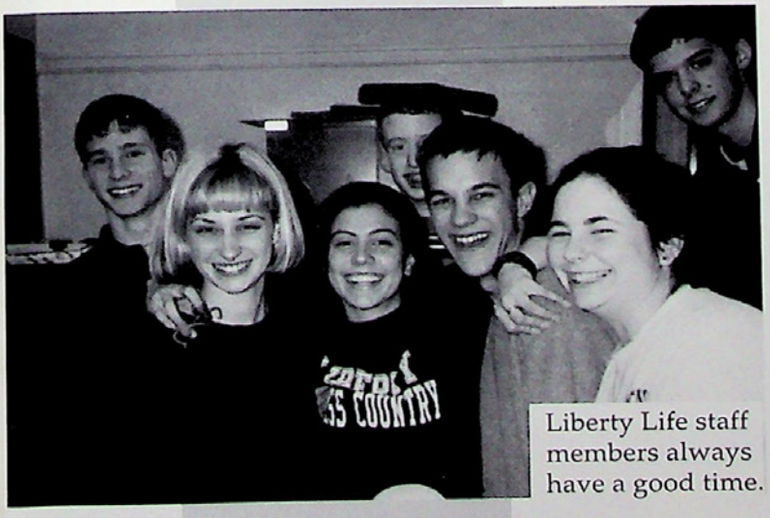
Dr. Allan is happy that the new edition has finally arrived.

Sarah Favinger is thrilled to be typing up another article.



Crista Sewald edits a new feature article during first period.



Liberty Life staff members always have a good time.

SCIENCE CLUB

Mrs. Miller is the advisor of the Science Club. The co-presidents are Lisa Carlin and Arju Ali. Jon Faul is the junior representative. Matt Williams is the secretary and treasurer. This year, club members placed eleventh out of thirty-eight in Science Olympiad. They also participated in PJAS and Lehigh Science Fair. They took field trips to Lehigh and various museums. The Science Club is a great club to join if you enjoy the many fields of science.

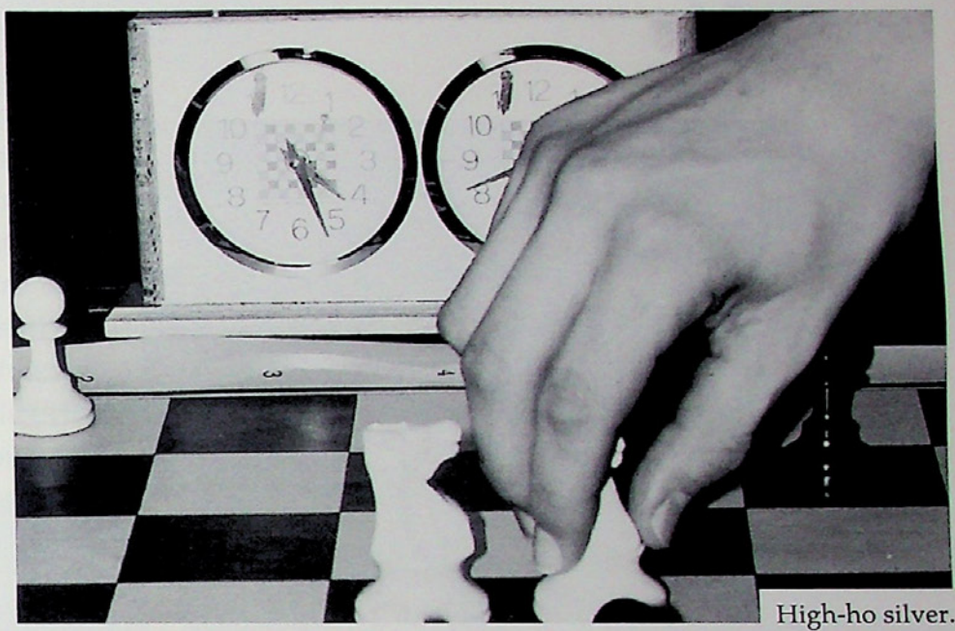
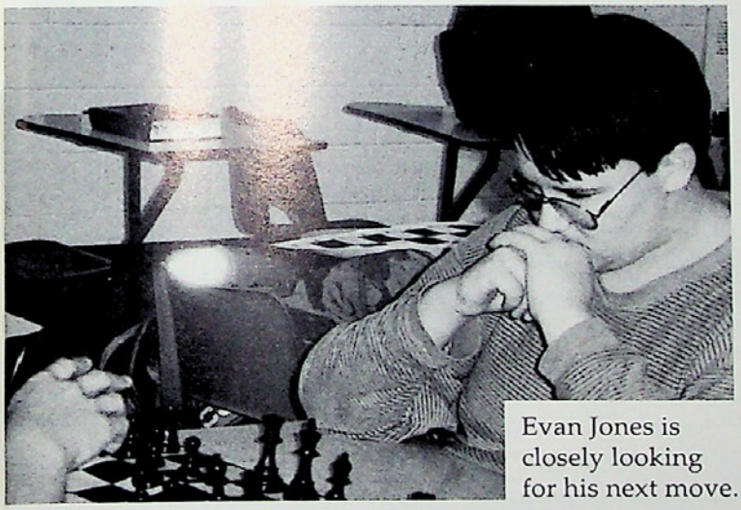
CHESS CLUB

Liberty's Chess Club is made up of a group of students who enjoy testing their skill and strategy against one another. The students who are in the Chess Club find this game most interesting. Mr. Bozzone gets enjoyment out of seeing the fine skills of these young chess masters. Whenever the students meet, they have to concentrate on beating both their opponents and the clock. If you have any type of Chess playing skill, then you should give the Chess Club a try.

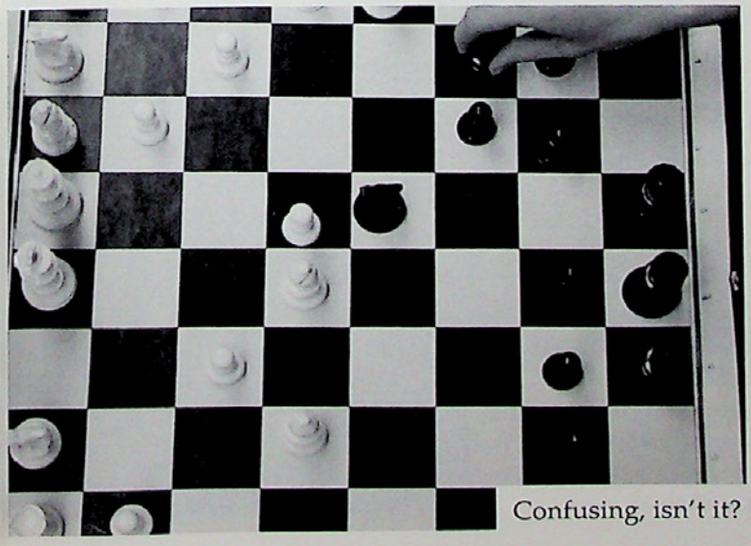


High-ho silver.

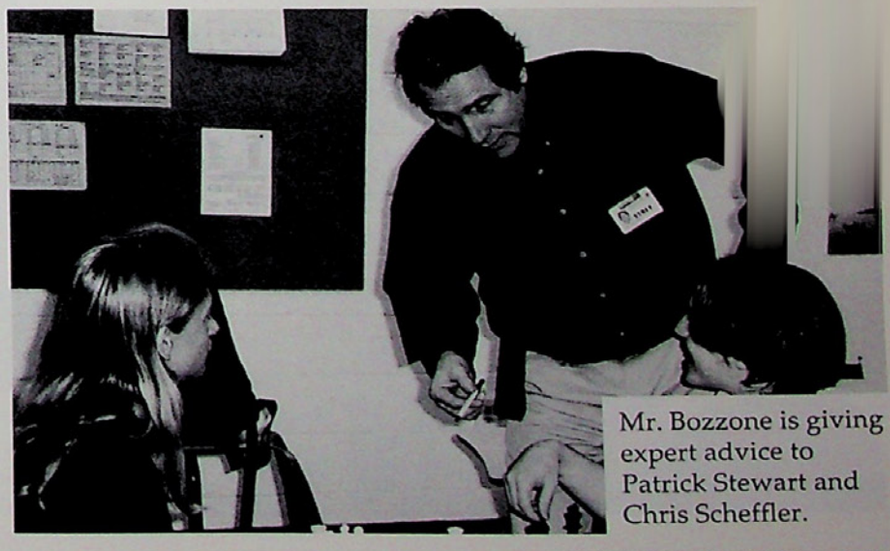


Evan Jones is closely looking for his next move.

Patrick Sewart and Chris Scheffler are battling in an intense game of chess.



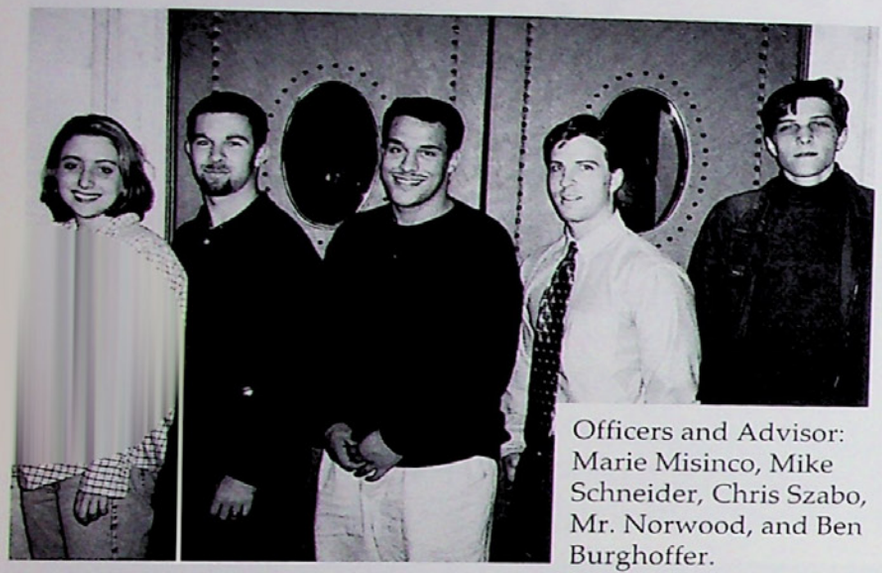
Confusing, isn't it?



Mr. Bozzone is giving expert advice to Patrick Stewart and Chris Scheffler.

GERMAN CLUB

Guten Tag! "Deutsch" Club is an exciting branch of Liberty's foreign language clubs. All members get to participate in the planning of trips and events. One of the famous trips is to Lancaster, PA. This classic excursion has become an annual tradition. Twenty members and two teachers will be venturing to Germany in June. They will be spending 10 days overseas, which should amount to a very entertaining and enlightening experience, just like every function of the club!



Officers and Advisor: Marie Misinco, Mike Schneider, Chris Szabo, Mr. Norwood, and Ben Burghoffer.

Row 1: James Royer, Jonathan Royer, Steven Compos, Ankur Sheth, Tiffany Travisano, Shanna Davis, Elisabeth Fetsurka, Mr. Norwood. Ashleigh Graf and Amy Lynn listen intently during the day's casual meeting.

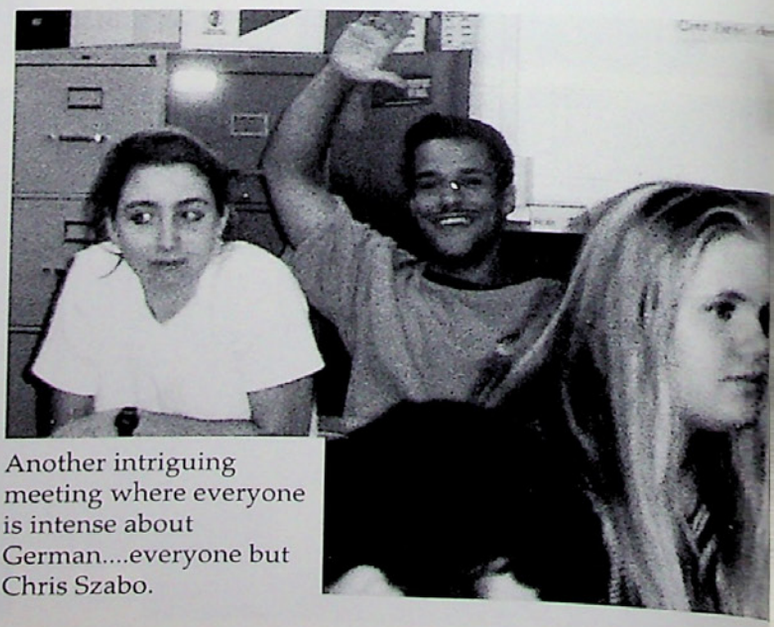
Today's meeting is capturing everyone's attention...well except for Jake Walter that is.



Another intriguing meeting where everyone is intense about German....everyone but Chris Szabo.

FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour! Welcome to the French Club of 1998. This organization gives students a chance to learn about French culture. Their intense meetings and in-depth conversations make the club extremely interesting. Members of the French Club enjoy international dinners, French movies, and exciting games. The trips taken increase the students knowledge about the French culture. The members hope to travel to France one day to get a first hand look on the real way of living in France!

Kelly Huennekens takes charge!

Those French Club meetings really wear out Matt Williams!

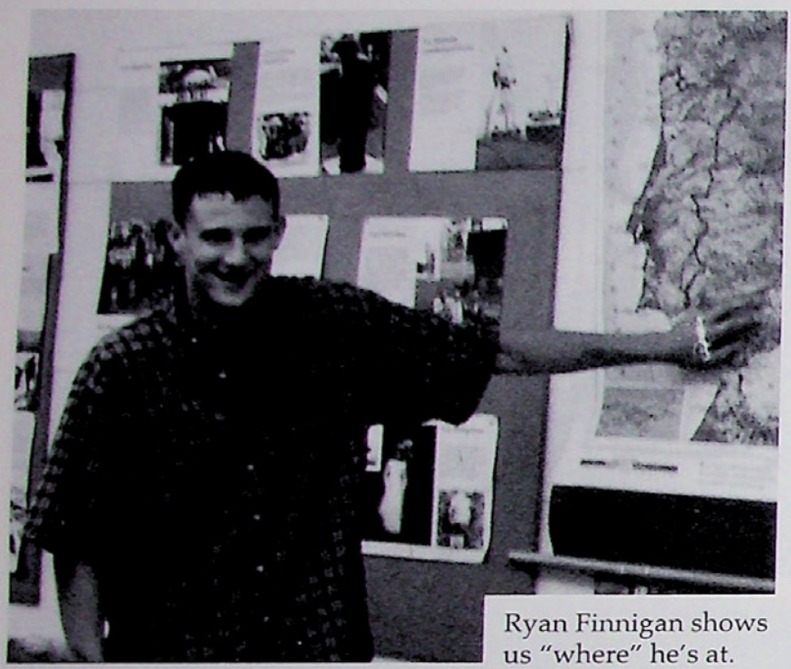
Andy Allan just worships Gabe Traupman's French skills.

SPANISH CLUB

Hola! If you don't know that means "Hello," you should join the Spanish Club. This active group of cultured students is led by Liberty's own, Mrs. Carolyn Roman. The Spanish Club members have participated in many interesting activities this year. One of the most noteworthy activities was the International Foods Lunch, where members were able to experience the Spanish culture through their appetites. These dedicated students met often throughout the year to discuss and plan fun activities, such as the International Foods Lunch, and to help other students at Liberty learn more about the Spanish culture.



Ryan Finnigan shows us "where" he's at.

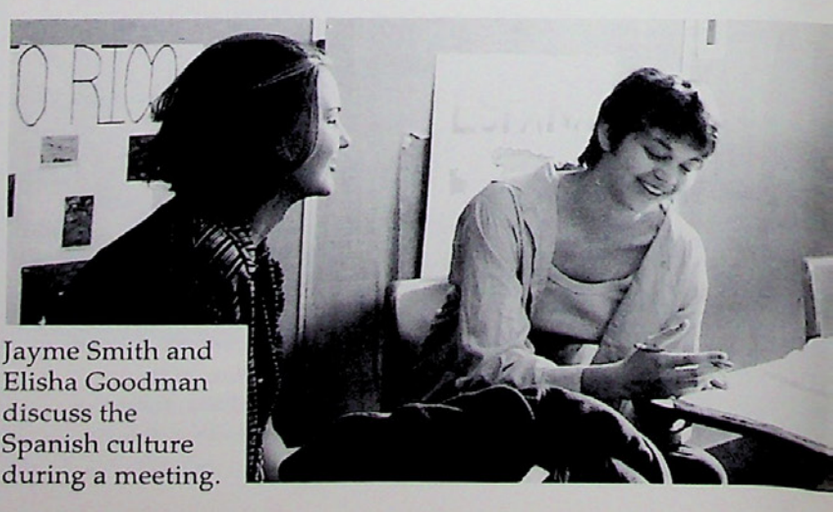
Everyone listens intently to the day's agenda. Well, mostly everyone.



Jayme Smith and Elisha Goodman discuss the Spanish culture during a meeting.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club of Liberty High School is unlike any other foreign language club. Studying everything from the history of the Latin language to the art of Roman Drama and mythology, they have obtained a vast amount of knowledge on the Latin culture. This club has gone to several Latin competitions where several LHS students have placed in the top 10. Their accomplishments have brought Liberty immense pride.

CAULDRON

Matt Holt eagerly takes advice from Mr. Burkhardt.

The 1997 - 98 Cauldron staff was a compilation of extremely talented and dedicated students. This group of students has spent countless hours during study halls and after school, working hard to capture memories and make this year's Cauldron the best ever! During her first year of advisement, Business Teacher, Mrs. Lisa Gilliard has used her computer expertise to enhance Liberty's 1998 Yearbook. The staff was composed of photographers and individual staffs for Sports, Arts, Seniors, Underclassmen, Friends and Family, and Business Sections. Editor-In-Chief Chris Mill and Co-Editors Erin Munley and Sarah Favinger encouraged students to make this year's Cauldron unique and diverse. The entire staff was very determined to make this year's Cauldron a book to remember!

SWAP

"Students With A Purpose (SWAP) is a student led Bible study that has met every Tuesday for the past two years. Being student-led, SWAP is a non-threatening environment where students may share and discuss their views on contemporary issues, and then look for Biblical principles to guide their responses. SWAP opens itself to all students of all religions. The goal of this group is to pray for and encourage one another, and to learn about God and his teachings in the Bible." - Melissa Lasso (SWAP Leader)

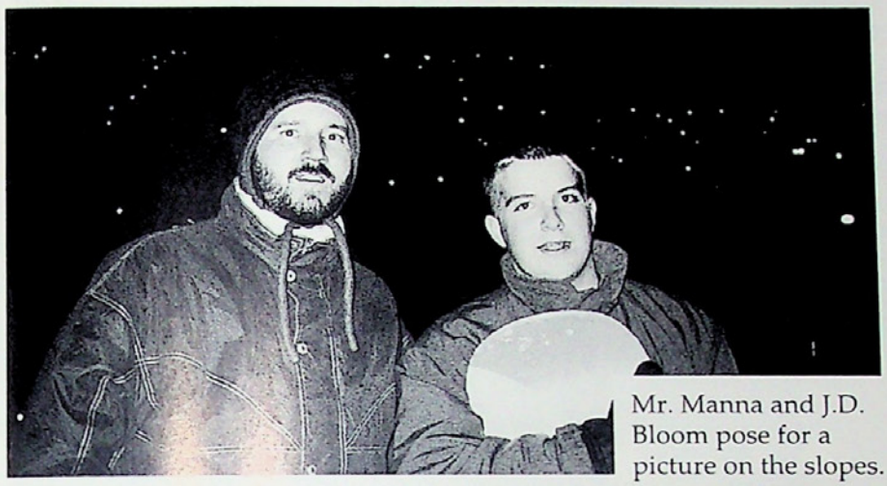
Ski Club



Mr. Manna and J.D. Bloom pose for a picture on the slopes.

The Ski Club, under the guidance of Mr. Manna, is in its second year at Liberty. This club is made up of of all Liberty students and faculty who love to ski. Every Friday during winter, the Ski Club travels to one of the various mountains in the area to have some fun on the slopes. The Ski Club has grown significantly since last year. This club is an excellent addition to the many clubs which we have here at Liberty.

"It was a tough winter for skiers [no snow], but we had great kids and a lot of fun!" - Mr. Manna

The Ski Club waits in anticipation to go to the mountain.

Ski Club Officer Brenna Howard shows us her agility on the mountain.

The club takes a break from serving others to wish the community a happy holiday.

Mock Trial

Order in the court! The Liberty High School Mock Trial is in session. The honorable advisor Judge Fair is presiding. This group spends many hours after school reenacting various trials. Once prepared, they go up against other schools as if it were an actual trial. This activity shows the students how the judicial system works in our society. It also prepares them for a possible career in the legal force. They have had a very prosperous first year, winning first place in a local competition. Mock Trial is a wonderful addition to the LHS extracurricular activities. The prosecution rests.

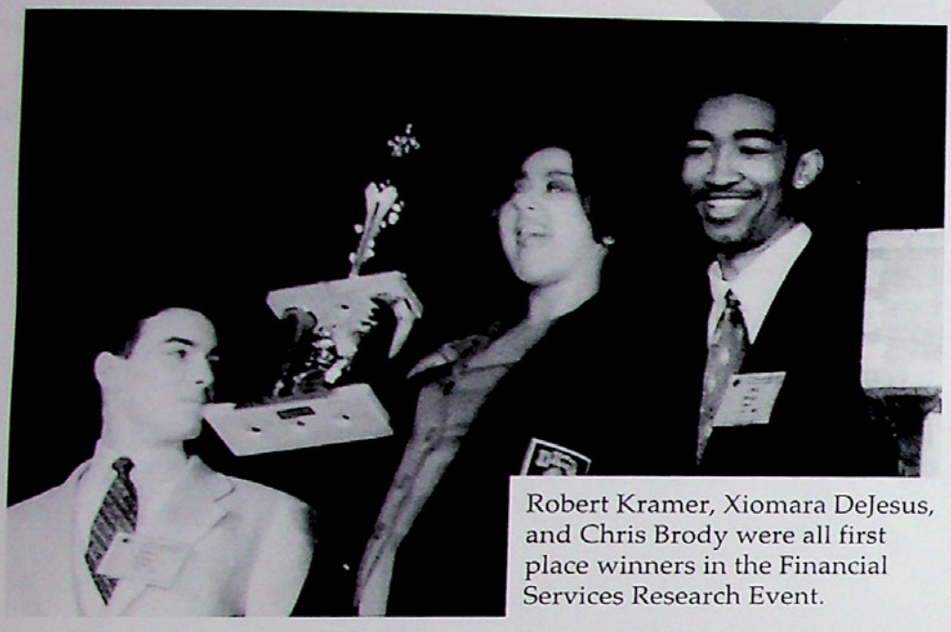
DECA



Robert Kramer, Xiomara DeJesus, and Chris Brody were all first place winners in the Financial Services Research Event.

DECA, which stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a national organization which was introduced to Liberty High School 40 years ago. Creativity, leadership, interviewing, and knowledge gained from marketing are very useful skills which DECA members have. They participate in situations that buisness people all across the world may face everyday. Above all, DECA allows everyone to enjoy great experiences, have a lot of fun, and meet new and exciting people.

FBLA

FBLA is the Future Business Leaders of America. It is a business club for students to compete on regional, state, and national levels. They participate in business testing and events. These students win awards at all the levels. They also get involved in fundraising, community service, and charities. This past year the regional competition was at Northwestern Lehigh and states were at Valley Forge. Four students participated in state competition, and represented Liberty High School well.

THEATRE CREWS

Most people forget about all the people "behind th scenes" of the magnificent Liberty Theatre produc tions. These people make sure the curtains open, th lights are on, the programs are completed, and th props are set-up. Liberty has five separate crews whic include: Stage Crew, Backstage Crew, Tech Crew House Crew, and Publicity Crew. All five crews ar essential in every production to ensure that each show runs smoothly. Their hard work and dedication mak Liberty Theatre Productions the best in the area.

LATINO LEADERSHIP

Latino Leadership members are very committed to and believe strongly in their club. The Latino Youth Leadership Club is an after school activity open to any student in the school. They take trips to different colleges and leadership workshops which help them in their future schooling. In November, they celebrate "Puerto Rican Heritage Day" where they sponsor a luncheon with typical Spanish food for the LHS faculty and some of the BASD administration. At the end of the year, they also take a day trip which is very enjoyable. This year they are going to visit Baltimore.

The faculty are consuming food with a twist.

PROM

Prom King and Queen: Adrian Solis and Kelly Bonser.

May 15 was quite the night for Liberty students various faculty and parents. This glitzy evening otherwise known as prom, began at 7:30 PM and lasted until 11:00 PM at Woodland Hills Country Club. The junior class along with advisors Miss Grant Mr. Schaffer, and parents all helped out to hang the shimmery decorations which accented the occasion perfectly. The night was lived up to the fullest, and barely ending for those headed to Post Prom. Held at Liberty High School, Post Prom was a rockin' reggae experience to always be remembered. The main attraction, "Mama Jama" lead their enthusiastic crowd in song, dance, and excitement. Refreshments, raffles and vivid decorations were also present to help transform Liberty into a sultry Caribbean scene. As much fun as this was, all things must come to an end, and in this case 5:00 AM. What "A Night To Remember" Liberty!

Good friends all pose for their last prom together.

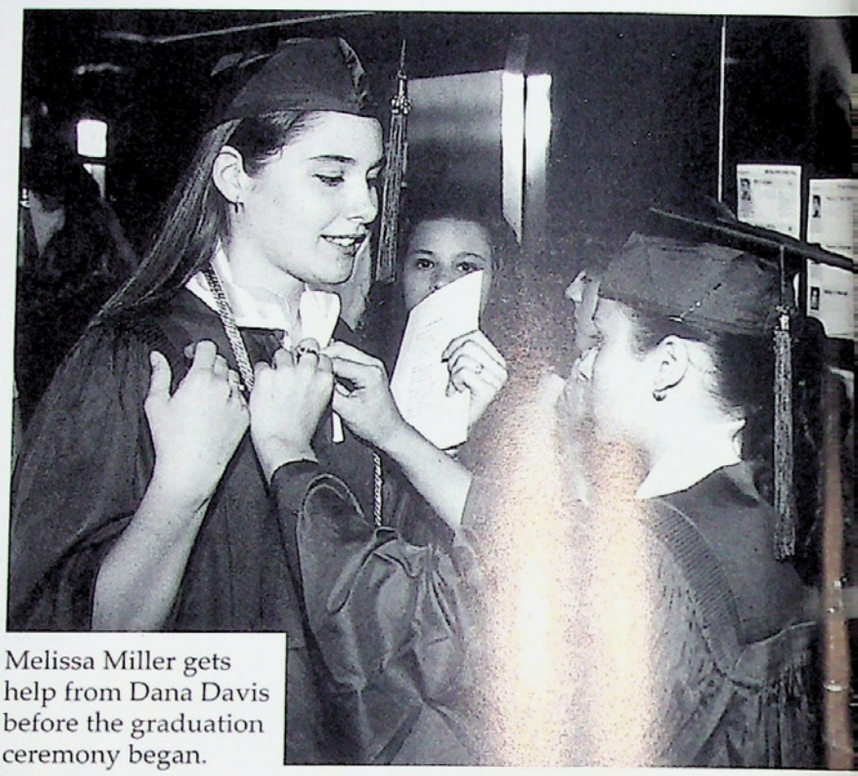
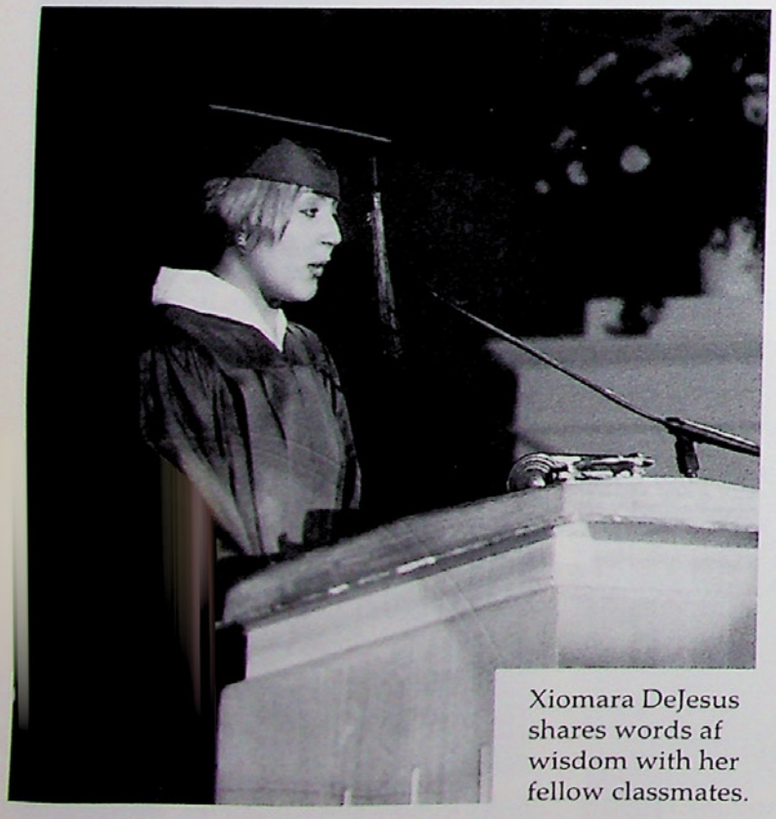
GRADUATION

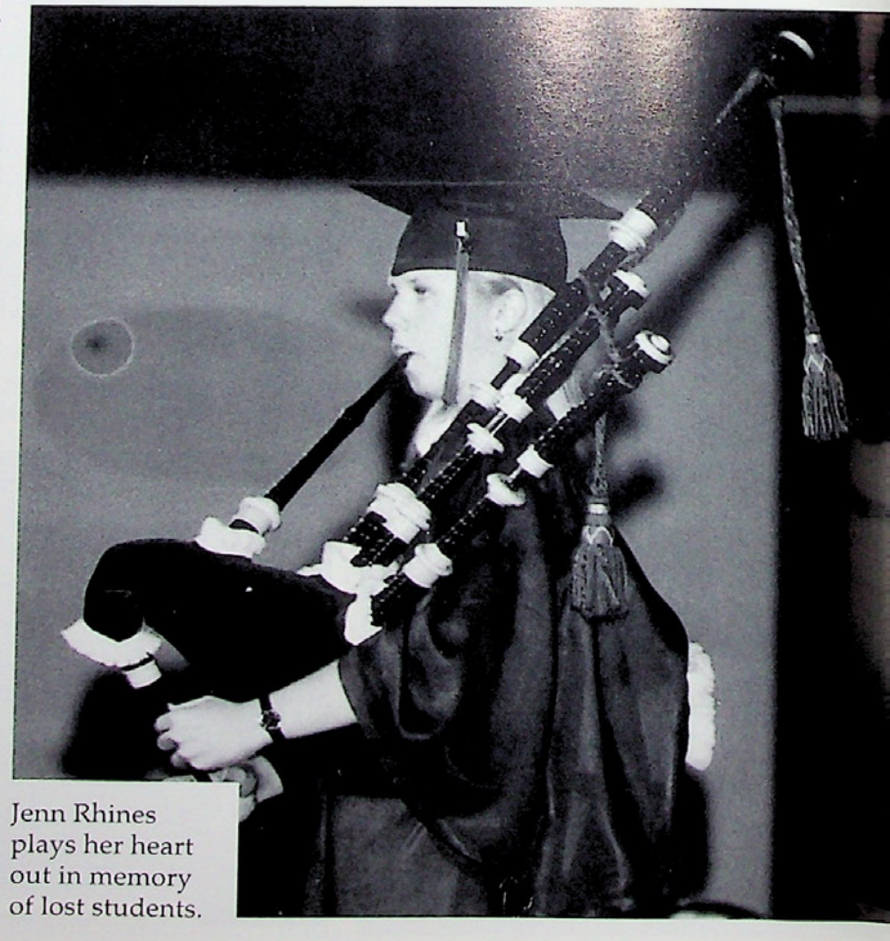
The Class of 1998 held its Commencement Exercises on Wednesday, June 17, 1998 at Lehigh University's Stabler Arena. Students elected Xiomara DeJesus to be their speaker and faculty chose Marc Repnyek as their choice for speaker. Both speeches directly related to the Graduation theme song, "Reach", by Gloria Estefan. The program began with greetings from class secretary Sarah Favinger, who also introduced all platform guests at this time. The class gift was presented to Mr. Burkhardt by class treasurer, Christopher Mill, followed directly by the awarding of the first diploma to class president, Mollie Byrd. After all 449 students had received their diplomas, the program ended with a farewell from class vice-president, Mike Dietrich and the singing of the alma mater. Good luck to the Class of 1998. We will never forget you.



Melissa Miller gets help from Dana Davis before the graduation ceremony began.



Xiomara DeJesus shares words af wisdom with her fellow classmates.



Jenn Rhines plays her heart out in memory of lost students.

Marielle Stone

Dear Marielle,

We always knew that you, the sweet, pixie-like child captured in this photo, would grow into the beautiful and accomplished young woman that you've become.

You possess a true thirst for knowledge along with a keen intelligence, and we congratulate you on your academic success. More important, we are very proud of your ideals in social morality, generosity, and genuine faith in all that is good in the world.

The best to you always in all of your endeavors as you walk the road of life after graduation. We hope your college years are exciting and fun. We know that you've got what it takes to make a successful and happy life.

God bless you and remember that we are always here for you. We love you.

Your loving family,
Mom, Dad, Mark and Kristie

Christian Szabo

Dear Christian,

Congratulations son! We are exceedingly proud of you. We could not have asked for a better son. You are very special and deserve the very best. Not because you have worked so hard each and everyday throughout all the years to achieve outstanding goals, but because of the person you have become. Ever caring, ever sharing while lighting up our lives with your laughter of delight only to caress the joys of life. Happy in God's light, mighty in his sight. You have made this right. Much deserved happiness and success in the future!

We love you,

Craig Israel

Craig,
What a fine young man you have become.
A child is the blessed moments of the past,
The joyous moments of the present, and the hope and promise of the future. You have been, and are, all of these things and more. Today we wanted to tell you how very proud and blessed we feel to call you our son, brother, and grandson.

We wish you many successes and unending happiness. Hold onto your dreams and follow your heart. Take risks if they must be taken, because a person who risks nothing, has nothing and is nothing. Never give up on yourself--remember, perserverance pays off. The best is yet to come!

Please know that wherever life's road takes you, we will always be there for you. You will always be in our thoughts and prayers, and in our hearts you will remain "Forever Young."

God bless you and keep you always in his care.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Marc, Todd, Grammy, Nanna, Pop-Pop and Nana

Kaylan Wargo

Be understanding, devoted, willing, energetic, idealistic, sincere, encouraging, reliable in whatever you choose for your life's path. For one day, you too, will find your special niche whether you turn out rich and famous, or end up digging ditches. As long as you always strive to be the endless possibilities. Tadpole to frog, son to a man, if he can make it, we know that you can.

When you were a baby so cute and so small I watched you grow I didn't yet know I must let you go. When you were a little girl so full of joy I watched you grow I still didn't know I must let you go. When you became a young lady so full of hope and dreams I watched you grow. It was just beginning to dawn on me I might have to let you go. Now you're a senior and all grown up, so full of expectations, and wonderful times to come. I will still watch you grow into that very special person. I'm so proud to know, and now I realize within my heart, no matter where you are, We'll never be apart.

We love you very much,
Mom, Matt, and Liz

COLOPHON

The 1998 Cauldron, Volume 73, was printed in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania by Herff Jones Yearbook. With the guidance of company representative Nancy Tunis, we, the Liberty High School Yearbook staff have once again produced a wonderful yearbook.

All senior, underclassmen, and faculty portraits were taken by Christmas City Studios of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Candid photographs for the Sports, Underclassmen, Senior, Faculty, and Student Life sections were supplied by Christmas City Studios and the Cauldron photography staff.

Over six hundred and fifty copies of the Cauldron were sold this year to students and faculty of Liberty High School. This year's Cauldron was sold for charge $50 or $55. Seniors received a yearbook free of charge upon full payment of their class dues.

This year's book was printed on 80# Bordeaux Special paper. The cover is Vibra Tex Navy 1067 with Cordura Grain. The end sheet photographs of the Class of 1998 were supplied by Christmas City Studios. The book consists of 324 pages, 16 of those in color. All dividers were prepared by Chris Mill and Mrs. Lisa Gilliard.

The Cauldron Staff would like to extend a special thanks to Mrs. Joanne Garcsar of Liberty High School Business Department for the use of all of her knowledge. Thanks to the Business House and Mr. Martucci and his graduate class for putting up with us when we had a deadline. We would also like to extend our thanks to Nancy Tunis, from Herff Jones Yearbooks, for coming to help whenever we called and for all her good ideas. You're the best! Thank you also to Christmas City Studios in Bethlehem, especially Darlene Miller, Pat Palhofski, Kim Hall, George and Meryl Baker for helping us when we were in jams. Everyone has been so great, we couldn't have done it without you!
