

Reese, Truman

Local Quintet at Casablanca

1944
Pictured here are four Bethlehem and one Easton soldiers who have been together since their induction on October 16, 1943. They are pictured before a non-commissioned officers club in Casablanca where they had gone after they had come from the lines. Standing left to right are Truman Reese, Edward Lynch, Robert Strohl and Joseph Polencar; seated, Andy Petrelli. With the exception of Lynch, an Eastonian, the others are Bethlehem men.

Apr. 13, 1944